12-729 HEIMESHOFF V. HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE

DECISION BELOW: 496 Fed. Appx. 129

LOWER COURT CASE NUMBER: 12-651

QUESTION PRESENTED:

1. When should a statute of limitations accrue for judicial review of an ERISA disability adverse benefit determination?

2. What notice regarding time limits for judicial review of an adverse benefit determination should an ERISA plan or its fiduciary give the claimant with a disability claim?

3. When an ERISA plan or its fiduciary fails to give proper notice of the time limits for filing a judicial action to review denial of disability benefits, what is the remedy?

LIMITED TO QUESTION 1 PRESENTED BY THE PETITION.

CERT. GRANTED 4/15/2013