20-1034 GOLAN V. SAADA

DECISION BELOW: 833 Fed.Appx. 829

LOWER COURT CASE NUMBER: 20-1544

QUESTION PRESENTED:

The Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction requires return of a child to his or her country of habitual residence unless*, inter alia*, there is a grave risk that his or her return would expose the child to physical or psychological harm. The question presented is:

Whether, upon finding that return to the country of habitual residence places a child at grave risk, a district court is required to consider ameliorative measures that would facilitate the return of the child notwithstanding the grave risk finding.
