ORDER IN PENDING CASE

No. A-423. Oklahoma Publishing Company, applicant, v. District Court in for Oklahoma County, Oklahoma, et al. This is a renewed application for partial stay of a pretrial order of the District Court of Oklahoma County, Oklahoma, pending filing and disposition of a petition for certiorari. The order enjoined law enforcement officials and other public employees, as well as prosecution and defense counsel "from disclosing any information or making any comment concerning" a delinquency proceeding then pending in that court against a juvenile. The order also restrained all members of the news media from "publishing, broadcasting or disseminating in any manner, the name or picture of said minor child in connection with this pending case." On application for prohibition and mandamus challenging the restraint on the press, the Oklahoma Supreme Court sustained the order. The application for stay here filed by Oklahoma Publishing Company also challenges only the injunction against publishing the name and picture of the minor. It does not challenge the restraint on counsel or public employees; nor does it challenge the Oklahoma statute requiring juvenile proceedings to be held in private unless specifically ordered by the judge to be open to the public.

It appearing that the name and picture of the minor involved in this case were made available to the public as a result of a hearing held at the outset of this case which was in fact open to the press, the application for stay of the order enjoining publication of the name or picture of the minor, presented to Mr. Justice White and by him referred to the Court, is granted pending the timely filing and disposition of a petition for certiorari unless earlier terminated by further order of the Court. Nebraska Press Ass'n. v. Stuart, No. 75-817, decided June 30, 1976, slip opinion p. 27; Cox Broadcasting Corp. v. Cohn, 420 U.S. 469, 491, 495 (1975). Mr. Justice Brennan, while not subscribing to this order, would also grant the stay.

OPINIONS

No. 75-904. Brunswick Corporation, petitioner, v. Pueblo Bowl-O-Mat, Inc., et al. On writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. Judgment vacated and case remanded to the Court of Appeals for further proceedings in conformity with the opinion of this Court. Opinion by Mr. Justice Marshall.

No. 75-1262. United States et al., appellants, v. County of Fresno; United States et al., appellants, v. County of Tuolumne. Appeal from the Court of Appeal of California, Fifth Appellate District. Judgment affirmed. Opinion by Mr. Justice White. Dissenting opinion by Mr. Justice Stevens.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

ORDER IN PENDING CASE

No. A-683. Melvin James Dixon, applicant, v. Vinson Thompson, Warden, et al. On application for a writ of habeas corpus. Dixon has filed a motion, addressed to Mr. Justice Stewart as Circuit Justice, and by him referred to the Court, for leave to file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. §§ 2241(b), 1651(a), and Supreme Court Rules 31 and 50. On January 27, 1977, the District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee denied Dixon's habeas corpus petition. Dixon has not appealed from that denial, but the record reveals that the time for appeal has not expired.

This Court does not, absent exceptional circumstances, exercise its jurisdiction to issue writs of habeas corpus when an adequate remedy may be had in a lower federal court. Ex Parte Abernathy, 320 U.S. 219 (1943); Ex Parte Tracy, 249 U.S. 551 (1919). Since an appeal from the judgment of the District Court may still be had and since there appear to be no exceptional circumstances justifying exercise of this Court's discretionary jurisdiction, the motion is denied. Denial of the motion is not an adjudication on the merits, and is made without prejudice to alternative or subsequent applications for relief. Ex Parte Abernathy, supra; Ex Parte Tracy, supra.

The Chief Justice said:

“Before we proceed today with the regular business of the Court, it is my sad duty to take note for the record and the Journal of the Court of the death of our beloved colleague and friend Mr. Justice Tom Clark, who served as a Justice of this Court from 1949 to 1967, after serving as Attorney General of the United States from 1945 to 1949.

“His death came almost exactly 10 years after retiring from this Court. But retirement for Justice Clark was not the end but the beginning of a new career in which he was a leading spokesman for judicial improvement and which, at the same time, took him on special assignments into every one of the 11 Federal Circuits. So far as we are aware, no Judge or Justice in history sat on every Court of Appeals after his technical retirement from active service.

“Even while sitting on this Court Justice Clark was a literal missionary for improvement of judicial administration, and it was logical that, when the Federal Judicial Center began operations in 1968, he was appointed its first Director. In that position, he gave standing and credibility to this important new institution created by Congress to improve the administration of justice.

“When he retired as Director, he resumed regular sittings on Courts of Appeals and District Courts all over the United States. And for the past 15 years he has had a part in every major program to improve the work of the courts. He played a leading role in launching the National College of the State Judiciary at Reno, Nev., where more than 1,000 State judges have received special training in the past decade.

“Last Saturday he was in his Chambers here at the Supreme Court, completing his preparation for cases he was to hear argued in the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in New York. When he did not arrive at the Court of Appeals on Monday morning, it was discovered that his death occurred during the night.

“He died as he lived, deeply committed and involved in the judicial work he loved—and literally, in the tradition of the West—‘with his boots on.’”

"No one in the past 30 years has done more than Tom Clark to improve justice in our country and no one had such universal respect and affection of the lawyers and judges of this country.

"I speak for all the present and former members of the Court today in expressing our deep sorrow, and our profound sympathy, for Mrs. Clark and her family.

"On an appropriate occasion after the opening of the next Term of the Court in October, the official memorial service of the Court will be conducted for Mr. Justice Clark in this Chamber."
