Re: No. 17-1087, First Resort, Inc. v. Dennis J. Herrera, et al.

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for Respondents in the above-referenced case. I write to request an extension of time for filing a brief in opposition to the petition for writ of certiorari.

Respondents' brief in opposition is currently due on March 5, 2018. I am unable to file a brief in opposition by this deadline due to other upcoming briefing deadlines, as well as other client obligations that will require a significant devotion of time in the next several weeks. I request an extension of 45 days to file a brief in opposition. This would create a new deadline of April 19, 2018.

Petitioner previously requested an extension of 60 days to file a petition for writ of certiorari in this case and received an extension of 45 days. I have conferred with counsel for Petitioner about Respondents' request for an extension of time to file a brief in opposition to the petition for writ of certiorari, and Petitioner does not consent to this extension.

Petitioner's counsel is being provided with notice of this request by e-mail and by copy of this letter. If you require any additional information, please contact me at (415) 554-4290.

Very truly yours,

DENNIS J. HERRERA
City Attorney
