RE: Fifth Consent Request for Extension of Time to Respond to Petition for Certiorari in Livnat v. PA, No. 17-508.

Dear Mr. Harris,

Pursuant to this Court's Rule 30.4, and in order to accommodate the trial schedule of Petitioners' counsel, Jessica P. Weber, of Brown, Goldstein & Levy, LLP, the parties respectfully request a 30-day extension of time, to and including June 13, 2018, of the current briefing schedule in the above-referenced appeal. Pursuant to this Court's Order of March 2, 2018, Respondent's brief in opposition is currently due May 14, 2018. This is the fifth consent request for an extension in this case.

Petitioners' counsel, Ms. Weber, has informed counsel for Respondent that she has a trial scheduled for the end of May that, based on the current briefing schedule, will impede Petitioners' timely reply to Respondent's brief in opposition. Petitioners' counsel accordingly has requested Respondent's consent to extend the current May 14 brief in opposition deadline to June 13, in order to enable Petitioners to reply after counsel's trial concludes.

Respondent Palestinian Authority consents to this extension. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request a 30-day extension of time, to and including June 13, 2018, of the May 14 deadline for the brief in opposition to the above-referenced Petition for Certiorari.

Sincerely,

Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP
