OBJECTION TO MOTIONS FOR LEAVE TO FILE BRIEFS OF AMICUS CURIAE

Respondents Brett Livingston and Ivelisse Severance object to the Motions of the National Juvenile Defender Center; the National Association for Public Defense; and the National Bar Association, in which the Movants seek leave to file briefs of amicus curiae. The legal issues in this matter already have been sufficiently set forth in the Petition for Writ of Certiorari and the corresponding Response, and as such, the proposed amicus curiae briefs do not meet the requirements of Supreme Court Rule 37.1. For these reasons, Respondents respectfully request that this Court deny the Motions.

Respectfully submitted,
