RE: Almighty Supreme Born Allah v. Lynn Milling, et al., No. 17-8654

Dear Attorney Harris:

I represent the Respondents, Lynn Milling, et al., in the above captioned case. Pursuant to Rule 30.4 of the Rules of the United States Supreme Court, Respondents hereby request that the time within which to file Respondents brief in opposition to the petition for certiorari be extended sixty (60) days, up to and including September 9, 2018. The petition for certiorari in the above-captioned case was filed on April 23, 2018 and the amicus brief of the Cato Institute was filed on May 25, 2018. On June 11, 2018 the Court requested that a response be filed. Respondents' brief in opposition is now due, unless extended, on July 11, 2018. Counsel for the Petitioners, Attorney John J. Morgan, consents to this request for a sixty (60) day extension of time.

This request is made necessary by the fact that counsel for Respondents is scheduled to be out of the office for several days between now and when Respondents' brief currently is due, and by the fact of the intervening holiday and vacation schedules of individuals who will be preparing and reviewing the brief in this office. In addition, counsel has to comply with previously scheduled briefing and argument deadlines in several other cases in the District Court for the District of Connecticut, and the Connecticut Superior Court. Due to the press of these and other matters, counsel requires additional time in which to respond to the petition.

Respectfully submitted,

Steven R. Strom
Assistant Attorney General
Counsel of Record
