SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

WILLIAM STILLWELL, Pro Se And PENELOPE STILLWELL, Pro Se, Petitioners, v.

EAGLE-KIRKPATRICK MANAGEMENT COMPANY, INC., KIRKPATRICK
MANAGEMENT COMPANY, INC., G.T. SERVICES, INC. D/B/A GREEN TOUCH
SERVICES, INC., AND SECTION C HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC., And COHEN &
MALAD, LLP, Respondents,

APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE A WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE INDIANA SUPREME COURT

To the Honorable Brett M. Kavanaugh
Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court and Circuit Justice for the Seventh Circuit

Petitioners William Stillwell and Penelope Stillwell request a sixty day extension of time to file their Petition for Writ of Certiorari until the date of April 28, 2019. The final judgment of the Indiana Supreme Court was entered on November 28, 2018. The date for filing the Petition for Certiorari will expire on February 27, 2019. This application is being filed on February 15, 2019, more than ten days before the filing expiration due date.

Petitioners are attaching the opinions of the lower Indiana court, the Indiana Court of Appeals, and the Indiana Supreme Court. Jurisdiction of this Court is invoked under 42 U.S.C. § 1395y(b)(2)(A), the Medicare Secondary Payer Act.

There are important questions concerning the intersection of commercial liability insurance and Medicare determined adversely by the courts below that have a considerable impact on both Medicare beneficiaries and the interests of the Medicare Trust Fund. Moreover, the Marion County Superior Court, the Indiana Court of Appeals, and the Indiana Supreme Court's proceedings and determinations have "so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, or sanctioned such a departure by a lower court, as to call for an exercise of this Court's supervisory power."

An extension of time to file the Petition for Writ of Certiorari is necessary because of illnesses of William Stillwell and Penelope Stillwell; William Stillwell has been hospitalized for the past fifty-two days and is currently in intensive care. Penelope Stillwell also has had health issues during this time period. As good cause is shown,

William Stillwell and Penelope Stillwell, Petitioners pray that their application for extension of time until April 28, 2019 to file their petition for the writ of certiorari be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

William Stillwell, Pro Se Petitioner
