RE: Keith Simpson v. The Bank of New York Mellon, etc.
Case No.: 18-187

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am Counsel of Record for the Respondent in this matter.

Respondent's Brief in Opposition to the Petition for Writ of Certiorari is due on Monday, September 10, 2018. We have been working diligently to complete the Brief in Opposition and will be submitting it with the assistance of a printing company. Unfortunately, because of my workload and theirs, including the substantial number of briefs in other cases the printing company is previously committed to preparing, it does not appear possible for the Respondent's Brief in Opposition to be completed and submitted by the deadline.

In accordance with Rule 30.4, we request a twenty-one-day extension of the deadline for Respondent's Brief in Opposition, such that it would be due on Monday, October 1, 2018. This is Respondent's first request for extension in this case.

Thank you kindly for your consideration.

Respectfully yours,

LAPIN & LEICHTLING, LLP
