Re: Aloha Bed & Breakfast v. Diane Cervelli, et al., No. 18-451

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to Rule 30.4 of the Rules of this Court, Respondents Diane Cervelli and Taeko Bufford request a 30-day extension of time, to and including February 1, 2019, in which to file their brief in opposition to the petition for certiorari.

Respondents request this extension because counsel faces significant competing professional obligations. Counsel must also file a brief in opposition to the petition for certiorari before judgment filed by the United States in Karnoski v. Trump, No. 18-676, which is currently due December 24, 2018, and respond to discovery sought by the United States in that action by December 17, 2018. In addition, counsel must file an opening brief on the merits in Gonzales v. Berryhill, No. 18-603 (D.N.M.), by December 13, 2018.

These and other previously scheduled professional and personal commitments, including travel over the holidays, would make it difficult for counsel to prepare a brief in opposition on the current schedule.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully,

Peter C. Renn
Counsel for Respondents Diane Cervelli and Taeko Bufford
