ORDER OF DISMISSAL

This matter comes before the Court on Petitioner Glenn Lee Selden's Petition Under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 for Writ of Habeas Corpus by Person in State Custody (Doc. #1, "Petition") filed February 20, 2018. Although the Petition is virtually unintelligible, it appears that Petitioner moves the Court for immediate release from incarceration. Doc. #1 at 15. As more fully set forth below, the Court finds the Petition is due to be dismissed.

Petitioner, is an inmate incarcerated within the Florida Department of Corrections ("DOC") at Moore Haven Correctional Facility. Petitioner is serving a fifteen (15) year sentence and various concurrent five (5) years sentences in connection with offenses committed on or about March 22, 2006, for which he was sentenced on August 20, 2007. See Florida Department of Corrections Offender Network, located at www.dc.state.fl.us.

Rule 4, Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases, requires both a preliminary review of an application for the writ of habeas corpus and summary dismissal "[i]f it plainly appears from the face of the petition and any attached exhibits that the petitioner is not entitled to relief in the district court. . . ." The Court takes judicial notice that Petitioner has already filed a 28 U.S.C. § 2254 petition challenging the conviction for which he currently is incarcerated. See Selden v. McNeil, Case No. 8:10-cv-02259-T-33EAJ (M.D. Fla.). Petitioner has not obtained leave from the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals to file a successive petition. See 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b); Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases in The United States District Courts, R. 9; Wells v. AG, 470 F. App'x 754, 756 (11th Cir. 2012) (district court must dismiss a second or successive petition for a writ of habeas corpus brought under § 2254 for lack of jurisdiction unless the prisoner has obtained an order from the appropriate court of appeals authorizing the district court to consider it). Consequently, this case will be dismissed without prejudice to allow Petitioner the opportunity to seek authorization from the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

Petitioner should be aware that § 2244(b)(2) limits the circumstances under which the Court of Appeals will authorize the filing of a second or successive habeas corpus petition. Furthermore, 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) imposes a time limitation on the filing of a habeas corpus petition. Petitioner, in seeking relief in the Court of Appeals, should be cognizant of both these provisions.

ACCORDINGLY, it is hereby

ORDERED:

1. This case is hereby DISMISSED without prejudice.
2. The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate any pending motions, close this case, and send Petitioner an "Application for Leave to File a Second or Successive Habeas Corpus Petition 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b) By a Prisoner in State Custody" form.

DONE and ORDERED at Fort Myers, Florida, this 30th day of March, 2018.

ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on Petitioner's Motion for Appeal (Doc. #15) filed on April 27, 2018, and Motion to Proceed In District Court Without Prepaying Fees (Doc. #20) filed on May 24, 2018. On March 30, 2018, the Court, finding it lacked jurisdiction to consider Petitioner's successive 28 U.S.C. § 2254, dismissed this action (Doc. #11), and judgment was entered on April 2, 2018 (Doc. #12). Petitioner filed a pleading titled "Notice of Appeal" (Doc. #16) on May 14, 2018. On May 21, 2018, the Court denied Petitioner's construed motion for reconsideration (Doc. #19). To the extent discernable, Petitioner, who is incarcerated within the Florida Department of Corrections, seeks to appeal the Court's March 30, 2018, Order and wishes to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis.

Because the Court lacked jurisdiction to consider the successive petition, the Court lacks jurisdiction to grant or deny a certificate of appealability. See 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c); Boone v. Sec'y, Dep't of Corr., 377 F.3d 1315, 1317 (11th Cir. 2004); see also Scotton v. U.S. 2017 WL 7511339 *2 (11th Cir. 2017). Nonetheless, because the Court's March 30, 2018, Order is a final order, Petitioner may seek review pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1291. Thus, his appeal is subject Title 28 U.S.C. § 1915 and Rule 24 of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, which govern applications to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal. Essentially, two requirements must be met to appeal in forma pauperis: (1) a party must demonstrate an inability to pay; and (2) the appeal must be brought in good faith. An appeal may not be taken in forma pauperis if the trial court certifies in writing that it is not taken in good faith. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3). Good faith on appeal is demonstrated by an objective standard of a nonfrivolous issue. Coppedge v. U.S. 369 U.S. 438, 445 (1962).

It is entirely unclear from a review of either the Motion for Appeal (Doc. #15) or Notice of Appeal (Doc. #16) what issues Petitioner intends to present on appeal. Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(a)(1)(C). Upon review of this matter, the Court finds that the appeal is not taken in good faith, and certifies that the appeal is not in good faith. Because the Court has certified that this appeal is not taken in good faith, any request to proceed in forma pauperis should be sent directly to the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals. See Fed. R. App. P. 24(a)(5).

ORDERED:

1. The Clerk shall docket Petitioner's "Motion for Appeal" (Doc. #15) as a notice of appeal and terminate it from the pending motions report.

2. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) and Fed. R. App. P. 24(a)(4), the Court certifies that this appeal is not taken in good faith.

3. Petitioner's motion to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal (Doc. #20) is DENIED and Petitioner is assessed the $505.00 appellate filing fee for this matter. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1).

4. The Clerk of Court shall immediately forward a copy of this Order to Plaintiff and the Clerk for the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

DONE and ORDERED at Fort Myers, Florida, this 28th day of June, 2018.
