PETITIONER'S NOTICE REGARDING FILING DATE

Comes now the Petitioner, Clifton Davidson, pro se, and respectfully notices this Court that the filing date for his Petition for Writ of Certiorari should be May ⁹ 2018. In support of this assertion, Davidson states the following:

He is a federal inmate and pursuant to this Court's decision in Houston v. Lack, 487 U.S. 266, 273 (1988), he provided this document and the Petition on the morning of May 7, 2018 to the staff in the inmate mailroom as stated in the accompanying sworn statement on page 2 of this document.

Additionally, this is a new Petition and there is, therefore, no appeal number or case number which to file this document under.

Again, the filing date should be May ⁹ 2018.

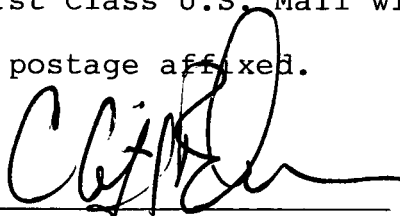

I, Clifton B. Davidson, do hereby swear under the penalty for perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, that I deposited the Petition for Writ of Certiorari to this Court, with prison staff at FMC Lexington, in the morning of Monday, May ~~8~~⁹, 2018. I did this at the inmate mailroom. On the properly addressed envelope was the correct address for this Court (1 First St. N.W., Washington, DC 20543-001) and the envelope had more than enough proper postage for First Class U.S. Mailing. The envelope was addressed to the "Clerk, U.S. Supreme Court."

Dated: May 6, 2018
