

January 3, 2019

Via Overnight Mail

Honorable Scott S. Harris, Clerk
SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES
1 First Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20543

Re: George T. Hawes v. Daniel P. Reilly, No. 18-539

Dear Clerk Harris:

I am writing as counsel for Daniel P. Reilly, respondent in the above matter. I represented Mr. Reilly in the lower court (Rhode Island Supreme Court). Out of an abundance of caution I want to be clear that I am not currently a member of the United States Supreme Court bar but it is my intention to submit the appropriate admissions application forthwith.

I respectfully request a thirty (30) day extension of time within which to oppose or otherwise respond to the Petition for Writ of Certiorari ("Petition") in the above referenced matter, to and including February 10, 2019. The reason for this request is I received the request for a response from the Court on or about December 18 and due to the holidays I was just able to connect with my client in the last few days.

It is for these reasons that I respectfully request a thirty (30) day extension to file an opposition, to and including February 10, 2019. If I am not properly admitted by that date, a member of the Supreme Court bar will respond on behalf of my client.

Respectfully Submitted,

Brandon S. Bell
bbell@fontainebell.com

cc: Jonathan O. Hafen, Esquire (via e-mail: jhafen@parrbrown.com)
Bryan S. Johansen, Esquire (via e-mail: bjohansen@parrbrown.com)
Michael S. Pezzullo, Esquire (via e-mail: msplaw5489@gmail.com)

