Counsel for the Petitioner

To the Honorable Clarence Thomas, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and Circuit Justice for the Eleventh Circuit:

Introduction

Pursuant to this Court's Rule 13.5, the Petitioner, Derek W. Pelto, respectfully requests a thirty-day extension of time within which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari in this Court, to and including August 10, 2018.

Jurisdiction

The opinion/order of the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals denying a certificate of appealability was entered on January 5, 2018. The motion for reconsideration/rehearing was denied on March 12, 2018. Unless extended, the time within which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari would expire on July 11, 2018.¹

The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked under 28 U.S.C. § 1254(1). Copies of the opinion/order of the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals and the order denying rehearing/reconsideration are included in the appendix to this motion.

Argument

The issue in this case is whether the court of appeals improperly denied the Petitioner a certificate of appealability under 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c) on the ineffective assistance of counsel claim raised in the Petitioner's 28 U.S.C. § 2254 petition. In his § 2254 petition, the Petitioner alleged that his defense counsel misapprehended a change of law in Florida as to the burden of proof for an insanity defense. As a result, the Petitioner asserted that defense counsel interfered with the Petitioner's right to testify (because counsel misadvised the Petitioner as to the burden of proof for the insanity defense).

Unfortunately undersigned counsel's recent schedule requires him to seek a second extension of time in this case. In particular, in recent days, undersigned counsel has been out of his office attending various Bar committee meetings.² Additionally, in the near future, undersigned counsel will be out of his office on a family vacation out of the country.

Therefore, the Petitioner requests an extension of thirty days to file the petition for a writ of certiorari. No party will be prejudiced by the granting of a thirty-day extension in this case.

Certificate of counsel. Undersigned counsel has contacted opposing counsel (Assistant Attorney General Kristen Lynn Davenport), who stated that she does not oppose the relief requested.

² Specifically, undersigned counsel was out of his office (1) June 16-19, 2018, escorting his high school son to New Haven, Connecticut, so that his son can attend a one-week summer program at Yale University; (2) June 14-15, 2018, attending the annual meeting of The Florida Bar in Orlando, Florida; and (3) June 6-10, 2018, attending the annual meeting of the Florida Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers in Miami, Florida.

Accordingly, the Petitioner respectfully requests that an order be entered extending the time to petition for writ of certiorari by thirty days (i.e., a new due date of August 10, 2018).

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Michael Ufferman

DEREK W. PELTO,

Petitioner-Appellant,

versus

SECRETARY, DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS,
ATTORNEY GENERAL, STATE OF FLORIDA,

Respondents-Appellees.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida

Before TJOFLAT and MARCUS, Circuit Judges.

BY THE COURT:

Derek Pelto has filed a motion for reconsideration, pursuant to 11th Cir. R. 22-1(c) and 27-2, of this Court's order dated January 5, 2018, denying his motion for a certificate of appealability in the appeal of the denial of his habeas corpus petition, 28 U.S.C. § 2254. Because Pelto has not alleged any points of law or fact that this Court overlooked or misapprehended in denying his motion, this motion for reconsideration is DENIED.
