Re: Peaje Investments LLC v. Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico, No. 18-560

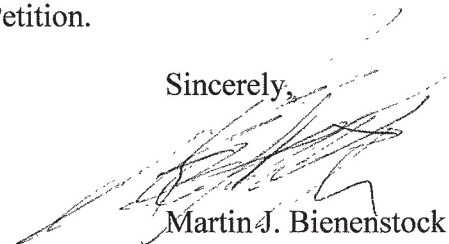

Dear Mr. Harris:

On behalf of the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the “Board”), I am writing pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30.4 to request a 30-day extension of time for respondents to file a brief in opposition to the petition for a writ of certiorari (the “Petition”) in the above-captioned matter. The Petition was filed on October 26, 2018, and was docketed on October 30. Accordingly, the opposition is currently due on November 29. The requested extension would extend the due date to December 31, 2018 (because December 29 is a Saturday). Counsel for the petitioner consents to the requested extension.

The Board was established by Congress to oversee the restructuring of Puerto Rico’s massive public debt—the largest restructuring of public debt in American history. See 48 U.S.C. § 101(b). At present, the Board is litigating dozens of adversary proceedings within the bankruptcy-like cases it has filed on behalf of the Commonwealth and its municipal entities. The Board also has eight appeals pending before the First Circuit. This law firm argued two of those appeals last week, is preparing with co-counsel for oral argument in two additional appeals that will be argued during the first week of December, and is in the midst of briefing another.

In light of the great number of matters the Board is handling, as well as the need to coordinate with counsel for the Commonwealth, we respectfully submit that the requested extension is necessary to allow us to respond properly to the Petition.

Sincerely,

Martin J. Bienenstock
