

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES
Office of the Clerk
Washington, DC 20543-0001

Johnny Kirkland

v.

NO. 18-6245

Progressive Insurance Company

PETITION FOR REHEARING

Comes now, Johnny Kirkland, Rose to the honorable judges of THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT to petition for Rehearing pursuant to Rule 44, in the above entitled case from a denied Petition on January 7, 2019.

I hereby certify that the stated grounds for rehearing shall be limited to intervening circumstances of a substantial or controlling effect, or to other substantial grounds not previously presented.

GROUND FOR REHEARING

In the judgement of the Petitioner, this honorable court failed to address a material or legal fact in its decision on January 7, 2019.

As grounds therefore, Petitioner raises the following issues:

- (1.) The accident occurred as a direct, and proximate result of the negligence, Intentionness, Carelessness, recklessness, and fault of the defendant.
- (2.) I was injured, and had to employ physicians for medical treatment, and therapy, where I have medical bills to pay.
- (3.) I have Property damage
- (4.) Progressive Insurance Company breached their Contract. The duty to perform.

(5.) Fifth and Fourteenthth Admendment.
(a) Due Process

(6.) Sixth Admendment

(a) Right to Counsel

(b) Right to jury trial shall not be infringed

(c) Violation of Civil rights.

~~JOHNNY KIRKLAND~~
JOHNNY KIRKLAND
Respectfully Submitted