I have been physically disabled since about 1992 from a botched up cesarean surgery in 1990. In 1995 I was in a 75 car pile-up high speed accident resulting in 7 herniated discs, nerve damage, and advanced osteoarthritis in my spine. My health deteriorated more rapidly when I was falsely imprisoned under a false identity, unable to get access to my medical records for the proper medical treatment. I did not enter prison with osteoporosis in September of 2014 but I left prison in December of 2016 with full fledged osteoporosis most likely due to no access to sunlight for 7 months and malnutrition. My life, liberty, and property were all taken by the state with no due process of law. Currently I am reaching out for help to deal with chronic pain and extreme PTSD from the governments' wrongful abuse of power and the deprivation of my most basic fundamental rights guaranteed by the Constitution. I have no income besides food stamps, and am unemployable with my physical and mental (PTSD) disabilities; the felony on my record creates an even greater disability. I am living under the charity and good will of my brother at this time.

I have no contact with my estranged husband Mark Allen Garcia and we have been separated and living apart since September 2014. I receive no spousal or financial support from Mr. Garcia and have no knowledge of his income or where he is living. Mr. Garcia abandoned me and my daughter in 2014, forged my signature on my personal checks without my consent, overdrafted and closed my checking account, gave my house, property, clothes, wedding ring, and even my cat to his girlfriend Lisa Dayon while I was incarcerated and prior to Mr. Garcia's incarceration in 2014. In the interest of my own physical, mental and emotional health, I reserve my right to have no contact with Mr. Garcia.

If this court finds it necessary, the DOJ, the Assistant U.S. Attorney Kimberly Svendsen, or Mr. Garcia's probation officer should have knowledge of his whereabouts and his income without causing me any further stress, anxiety, and grief in this matter.

I, Patricia Ann McQuarry declare under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the United States of America, without the "United States", that the foregoing is true and correct pursuant to my personal firsthand knowledge so help me God, 28 U.S. 1746(1).
