Michael Carlton Lowe, SR. – PETITIONER

V.

Tom Roy, Commissioner of Corrections – RESPONDENT(S)
all assigns or predecessors.

PETITION FOR REHEARING

The following party:

Michael Carlton Lowe in the above-named case hereby move(s) the Supreme Court of the United States for a petition for rehearing of the order denying his petition for writ of certiorari entered on January 7, 2019. This petition is comprised and restricted to the grounds in the submitted criminal complaint/affidavit of obligation presented on January 10th, 2019 in good faith and not for delay.

CLEAN HANDS/GOOD FAITH

This petition is not applied for light or transient reasons, not engaged in for purposes of harassment, and not engaged in for purposes of impeding or slowing court process.

It is not the intent of his process to cause anxiety, fear, distress, offense or alarm, or to impeded public procedures. This petition for rehearing is specifically and expressly intended to provide you with every administrative opportunity to execute your public responsibilities lawfully, and on behalf of this petitioner.

And, because: 3C.07 MINNESOTA STATUTES, HISTORICAL STATUS
"Subdivision 1. Minnesota Revised Statutes states: "The compilation and revision of the general and permanent statutes of Minnesota, prepared by the revisor under the provisions of Laws of Minnesota 1943, chapter 545, and filed with the secretary of state on December 28, 1944, is adopted and enacted as Minnesota Revised Statutes. Minnesota Revised Statutes must not be cited, enumerated, or otherwise treated as a session law. Acts passed at the 1945 biennial session of the legislature are not repealed or modified by the adoption of Minnesota Revised Statutes. The laws contained in Minnesota Revised Statutes are continuations of the acts from which compiled and are not new enactments." Id

Said petition is based on Supreme Court Rule 29 and all files, records and proceedings herein; and because the complaint & affidavit brings to the attention of the Court relevant matters regarding petitioner's confinement.

Signed this 16th day of January 2019.
