Clerk
Supreme Court of the United States
One First Street N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20543

Re: T.H.-H. v. Allegheny County Office of Children, Youth and Families, et al., No. 18-6997

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for J.G. and R.G., respondents who are the two children at issue in the underlying state-court case. (The children were referred to as “T.S.” and “E.S.” in the state-court proceedings, but they have since been adopted.)

The issues in this case are ones of Pennsylvania law, and there are no properly preserved federal issues. Accordingly, J.G. and R.G. waive their right to file a brief in opposition to the pending petition for a writ of certiorari. They will, of course, promptly file such a brief should the Court direct that they do so.

Very truly yours,

David R Fine
