<sup>1</sup> Court's decision, as per clerk of the courts letter, denying Certiorari the 4th day of March, 2019.

actors and their constituents, acting well beyond the legal and lawful accepted precepts, have desensitized the people of America; in great part, inculcated, said actions to become a de facto norm. Left unchecked,<sup>2</sup> the results of such actions result in mere extrajudicial punishment... tyranny incarnate.

Whether it's Frank M. Monte, III, a Senate confirmation Hearing, or the President of the United States... there is no demarcation standard to who may be subject to extrajudicial, supra, (frame job) next. Wherefore, the "effects of these actions are a matter of great public importance."

In light of these material fact(s) the illicit acts transgress a subjects' right to due process of law. One's right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. ... It's a direct assault on the construct of the Constitution of the United States. Renders the Constitution to be a mere parchment barrier between one's detractors, their contempt, and the rule of law... And threatens the fabric in which our republic was woven.
