Re: Request For Extension To Petition For Writ Of Certiorari

Dear Clerk,

I am writing with prayers and hopes of your assistance in relation to a very important matter.

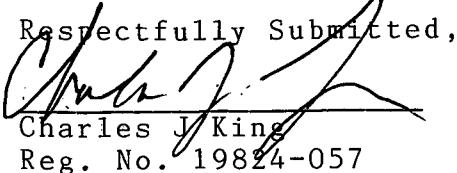

On June 20, 2016, I filed my Motion to Vacate, Set Aside of Correct Sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C § 2255, which was denied September 26, 2017.

I then moved in the United States Appeals Court for the Fourth Circuit for a Certificate of Appealability November 29, 2017, which was also denied August 6, 2018. See Exhibit A. I therefore humbly request an extension for the foregoing reasons;

1) Since then Hurricane Florence has created numerous lock downs; inclusive with:

2) Irregular compound moves, limited amount of typewriters and legal research search center's resulting in a denial of appropriate time to properly research and prepare his petition for writ of Certiorari.

Therefore, I humbly request this Honorable high Court grants an extension of 60 days to properly prepare question(s) and argument(s) herein.

Respectfully Submitted,

Charles J. King
