Supreme Court

No. 18-7640

Rehearing En Banc

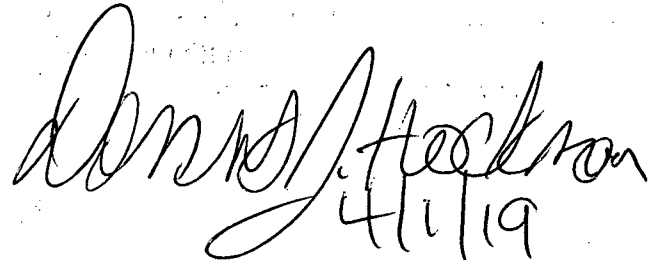

Donna Hockman v.
Phyllis Baskerville, warden

Donna Hockman, pro se requests this court for a rehearing on the above entitled case for the following:

- ① A writ of cert filed with your court provided crucial evidence on why the writ should be granted.
- ② The most important evidence (see enclosed) shows that by "clear and convincing" proof that denying Hockman the right to file her habeas in the U.S. District court based on "procedural grounds" for "failure to exhaust" is error.

③ Due to the error made by the U.S. District Court the writ of cert should be granted and Hockman should be ordered/allowed to refile her Habeas in the U.S. District Court.

Respectfully,
4/1/19
certification

A copy of this has been sent to the Attorney General of Virginia

4/1/19

Petition for rehearing is presented in good faith and not for delay

The grounds are limited to intervening circumstances of substantial or controlling effect
