RE: Jae Yung Kim v. Debbie Asuncion, Warden
Supreme Court of the United States, Case No. 18-7747

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to Rules 15.3 and 30.4, I respectfully request a thirty-day extension of time, to April 5, 2019, to file respondent's brief in opposition to the petition for writ of certiorari in the above-referenced matter. This request is made for the following reasons.

On January 31, 2019, Petitioner filed a writ of certiorari in this Court. On February 4, 2019, the matter was placed on the docket. A response is due on March 6, 2019.

I am currently working on a respondent's brief on a capital matter in the California Supreme Court. I anticipate spending the next two weeks working on the respondent's brief and will begin reviewing the instant petition for writ of certiorari after that time. I anticipate several rounds of editing and review by my supervisors, including a Deputy Solicitor General in the California Solicitor General's Office. After approval, I anticipate needing sufficient time for our legal support staff to prepare the brief for filing.

Therefore, I respectfully request a thirty-day extension of time to file the brief in opposition. On February 21, 2019, I contacted Jelani Lindsey, Deputy Federal Public Defender and counsel for Petitioner to determine whether he has an objection to this extension request. He has indicated that he has no objections to our request.

Sincerely,
