Answer to Order

Appellant in the case does not agree with decision of the court and contest as a pro se to order dated April 15, 2019.

Petitioner alerts the court to overrule order for dismal and seek approval by reconsideration for mediation under rehearing the case.

Appellant contest that good cause to overrule decision is indicated by Appellant's 1st found misrepresentation/fraud of the court by error of Appellant's address information directed toward a notice of the court by incorrect resident/mail address within the State of Washington which the Appellee received error notice.

Appellant in the case on May 13 2019 answer's to the order by request to reconsider denied order, to overrule the denied order, rehear the case and reconsider the circumstances of the case by Appellant's formal request for mediation process to settle the matter that conference was created by Supreme Court and no party were able to be in court to contest mediation upon the case by an appeal court statue.

PETITION FOR REHEARING

Request to Rehear to Mediate

Pursuant Rule 44 provides brief grounds which are included by "Answer to Order" within the packet and petition request upon May 13th 2019, unrepresented party by counsel, seeks review upon the matter by appellant court of the United States. Petitioner provides separate attachment certificate to request to rehear the case by judgment rule order dated April 15, 2019, Petitioner is in forma pauperis under Rule 39 and submits petition & jurisdiction define "other documents" for response to order correspondence dated May 6th 2019 to formal move for meditation.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF ORDER BY MEDIATION PROCEDURE APPROVAL
(FEDERAL RULE 33 & LOCAL RULE 33)

1. Petitioner request respectful moves of the court for reconsideration of denied order as of April 15th 2019 to further establish mediation among both parties.
2. Reason for motion is that respectively misrepresentation is evident within case administrative record and appellant contest that a confidential settlement offer has already been issue to appellee which affirmably unto the court holds numeric
