Re: Kenneth Shelton vs. Anthonee Patterson
No. 18-826

Dear Justices of the U. S. Supreme Court:

Being Pro Se in the above-referenced matter, I herewith file a Waiver by letter in this matter as I feel it is wasteful of the court's time to respond at length. However, we believe the following is relevant to this case. Accordingly, I enclose herewith a copy of the court order of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which is the underpinning of the misguided Application for Certiorari.

The specific issue addressed by all the courts is that they did not have jurisdiction to interfere with a common law binding arbitration without right to appeal, which was a contract between the parties, said arbitration being recommended by the Petitioner. The Courts found they could not correctly interfere in this matter. Therefore, I waive to respond.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Bishop Anthonee J. Patterson". The signature is written over a horizontal line.

Bishop Anthonee J. Patterson
