TO THE HONORABLE JUSTICE GINSBURG OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES AND CIRCUIT JUSTICE FOR THE SECOND CIRCUIT

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rules 13, 22, and 30, Petitioner, respectfully requested a 30 day extension of time, up to and including March 8, 2019, to file a petition for a writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for The Second Circuit to review that court's decision in case number 18-1708 re: Sandra Magana v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as Trustee for the Benefit of Certificate Holders of Asset Backed Pass Through Certificate Series 2004-MCW, et.al (see attached Exhibit A.) Petitioner had filed a separate motion on July 9, 2018 to have a similar case in Connecticut Superior Court (HFHCV18-600821-S) removed to Second Circuit in that there were similar issues and should be heard together. The court failed to reference that case number in its November 8, 2018 decision, or its disposition. The jurisdiction of this Court will be invoked under 28 U.S.C. § 1254(1) The application of both cases consolidated by the Second Circuit, is timely because it has been filed more than ten days prior to the date on which the time for filing the petition is expired.

1. This case presents an important and substantial question of federal law: 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under The United States Constitution or Federal Laws or treaties. The Fourteenth Amendment of The United States Constitution equal rights to life, liberty, and property. The Fifth Amendment of The United States Constitution provides Equal Protection under law.

2. Plaintiff-Applicant, Saundra Magana had requested Oral argument when filing appeal for first case 17-cv-2176JCH, and in a separate motion in July 9, 2018 with the removal of case HFH-CV-6008214-S to Second Circuit.
3. Plaintiff-Applicant sought to present to that court, evidence, through sworn testimony and documentation that Respondents Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. Bank of America, N.A. et.al had violated Applicant's civil and Constitutional rights either solely or through their agents. Had caused bodily, and financial harm to Applicant and her family, and was therefore requesting an, Injunction and Sanction pending the outcome of the appeal. The motions were denied
4. In addition, the petitioner in this case, planned to file jointly a petition for certiorari for both cases under Rule 39 when approved and Rule 33.2 and file them according to Rule 29. Coordinating this large undertaking would pose to be more of a problem during the holiday season, which preceded the previous filing deadline

Accordingly, the petitioner's request was granted on December 11, 2018 to extend the time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari for 30 days, up to and including March 8, 2019 ( Exhibit A).However, on February 4, 2019 the Superior Court, Hartford Housing Session, set a court date of March 5, 2019 to hear a matter regarding case No.HFH-CV-18-5008214-S (Exhibit B) a case Removed to Second Circuit Court of Appeal, joined with appealed case 18-1708, (which was No.17-17-CV-02176-JCH from United States District Court). Petitioner is requesting a Further Extension of Time, up to and including March 29, 2019, which shall allow Petitioner adequate time to obtain additional information from the March 5th 2019 hearing if needed, to include in the Writ of Certiorari.

Accordingly, the petitioner respectfully requests that an order be entered to Further Extend the Time to file a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari for 21 days , up to and including March 29th 2019.

Dated: February 25, 2019

Respectfully Submitted
