

In the Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, DC

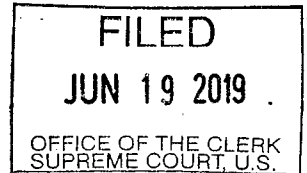

Robert L Clark,
Petitioner,

vs.

Cornell County Sheriff's Dept et al,
Respondant,

* Case no: 18-8609

Petition for rehearing

Comes now the petitioner, in the above-styled case files this timely petition, and states the following; This petition for rehearing is presented in good faith, and not for a delay. I certify this.

Grounds for rehearing

1.

The U.S. Court of Appeals ruling on the petitioner's forma pauperis status is clearly in violation of this Honorable Court's earlier holdings.

2.

Because the U.S. Court of Appeals failed to uphold this Honorable Court's rulings cited by the petitioner on forma pauperis appeals. Please see Farley V. United States, 354, U.S. 521, 77, S.Ct. 1371, 1, L.Ed 2d. Delbridge V. United States, 355, U.S. 36, 78, S.Ct. 124, 2, L.Ed. 2d. 72, Ellis V. United States, 356, U.S. 674, 78, S.Ct. 974, 2, L.Ed.

2d 1060, Hill V. United States, 356, U.S. 704, S.Ct 1139, 2. L.Ed.2d. 1145.

3.

Also because it is held in 1915 (b)(3) that in no event shall a prisoner be prohibited from bringing a civil action or from appealing a civil action or a criminal judgment for the reason that the prisoner has no assets, and no means by which to pay the initial partial filing fee.

4.

Did the U.S. Court of Appeals failed to rule on the petitioner's substantive claims of false imprisonment and illegal use of the legal process. The U.S. Court of Appeals also failed to show that the certificate lack good faith.

5.

Did the U.S. Court of Appeals failed to properly review the petitioner's request for appeal in form pauperis.

6.

Because the U.S. Court of Appeals also failed to provide counsel and the record to allow the petitioner to make a showing that his request for a COA was taken in good faith. Please see 28, U.S.C.A. 1291, 1294, 1915, 2255, Fed Rules Crim Pro rules 37(a)

(2) 39, (c) U.S.C.A. U.S. Ct. App. D.C. Cir Rules 18(a) 33, (b), (c) 28, U.S.C.A.

Conclusion

Because this is the second case that the U.S. Court of Appeals failed to correctly apply the forma pauper's law, this motion for rehearing should be granted. Please see case no. 18-8206
