On August 21, 2018, the U.S. Third Circuit Court of Appeals dismissed his 2241 actual innocent appeals brief without addressing and disposing of the petitioner, actual innocenec and illegally claims, and issue's for relief.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

The Petitioner Webb-EL, a Moorish-American Citizen Federal prisoner, state herein that his Title 28 USC § 2241(c)(3) Writ of Habeas Corpus paramount public important deprivations of Human Rights, violation pursuant, to Universal Declaration Human Right's Treaty Adpoted, and proclaim by the General Assembly resolution 217 A (III) of December 10, 1948 Articles 3 thru 9.

And deprivations of the petitioner, 5th, 8th, and 13th Amendment's Due Process, and Equal Protection of the Law Const. Right's

To have resort to the Title 28 USC § 2241(c)(3) Writ of Habeas Corpus to raise claims of actual innocenec, and illegally confinement Federal Constitutional Questions of federal law that should be decided by this Supreme Court.

Also, the petitioner, state herein that his Writ of Habeas Corpus Petition raise exceptional circumstance actual innocence, and illegally confinement claims for habeas relief, that warrants the exercise of this Court discretionary, powers in granting his habeas corpus petition.

Whereas, the petitioner Webb-EL, declares herein that adquate habeas corpus relief cannot be obtain in the lower United States Third Circuit Appellate Court, nor in the lower United States District Court For the Middle District of Pennsylvania.

Where both federal court's, refused/failed to Address, and Dispose of the petitioner, actual innocence, and illegally confinement issue's, and claims for Title 28 USC § 2241(c)(3) writ of habeas corpus .

Where, the petitioner, raised his actual innocence, and illegally claims for relief under the Supreme Court decision McQuiggin v. Perkins, 133 S. Ct. 1924, 185 L. Ed 2d 1019 (2013)

Also, See: Schulp v. Delo, 513 US 298 S. Ct. 851, 130 L. Ed 2d 808 (1995) which mandated the United States Third Circuit Appellate Court, and the United States District Court For the Middle District of Pennsylvania, to have Addressed, and Dispose of the petitioner, actual innocence, and illegally confinement issue's, and claims for § 2241(c)(3) for habeas relief.

The petitioner, Webb-EL, a mentally ill Moorish-American Citizen federal prisoner, and any other State or federal prisoner, American Citizen that are incarcerated under similar circumstance.

Argues, and contends herein before, this U.S. Supreme Court, that Federal Statute under Title 28 U.S.C. § 2255 motion, and under § 2255(e) Saving Clause.

Is unconstitutional in the manner the United States Appellate Court For the Thrid Circuit, and the United States District Court For the Middle District of Pennsylvania, applied, and construed the above mention described § 2255 motion federal statute.

As an procedural bar rule to arbitrary deprived the petitioner, of his Human Right's, and Constitutional Right's to obtain § 2241(c)(3) federal habeas corpus review of his actual innocence and illegally confinement claims for habeas relief.

Whereas, the petitioner Webb-El, declares herein that neither the U.S. Constitution, nor the Laws of the United States conferred no judicial authority on the U.S. Third Circuit Appellate Court, or the U.S. District Court For the Middle District of Pennsylvain to recharacterized the petitioner, 28 USC § 2241(c)(3) writ of habeas corpus, to be an 28 USC § 2255 motion, and § 2255(e) Saving Clause Statute to leave in place the petitioner, indefinite confinement in voluntary servitude against his will in federal custody in the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, where the petitioner, is being held in violation of the Constitution, and the Laws of the United States, to answer for, and being subjected to cruel, and unusual punishment for an alleged capital offense of second degree murder, that he was not charged by a Federal Grand Jury In Count One of the U..S. Government July 16, 1985 superseding indictment.

Which has resulted in the petitioner, being unconstitutionally deprived of his Human Right's, and Constitutional Right's to have been afforded a full, and fair meaningful plenary habeas corpus adjudication process of his actual innocence, and illegally confinement claims for relief before a neutral Article III Judge decision maker.

Also, the petitioner Webb-El, argues, and contends herein the United States Third Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States District Court For the Middle District of Pennsylvania recharacterized of the petitioner § 2241(c)(3) Writ of Habeas Corpus to be a § 2255 motion, and under the § 2255(e) Saving Clause.

Deprived the petitioner of his Human Rights, and 5th Amendment Due Process, and Equal Protection of the Law Constitutional Right's to have afforded the opportunity to challenge the constitutionality of the petitioner, immediate confinement custodian Respondent L.J. Oddo, Warden, USP Allenwood, PA authority to unlawfully act in clear absence of Congressional authority, and jurisdiction under Title 18 USC § 4042 Bureau of Prison Duties Statute, and under Title 18 USC § 1111 Federal Second Degree Murder Statute. To confine the petitioner Webb-EL indefinite in voluntary servitude against his will in violation of the Constitution, and the Laws of the United States, Unconstitutionally holding the petitioner Webb-EL, to answer for, and inflicting cruel, and unusual punishment upon the petitioner, for an non-existening capital offense of second degree murder, that the petitioner, was not charged by an Federal Grand Jury in the U.S. Government July 16 1985, superseding indictment.

Which violated the petitioner, Human Right's, and 5th Amend. Due process, and Equal Protection of the Law Const. Right's to resort to the § 2241(c)(3) Writ of Habeas Corpus Statute to raise claims, and issue's of actual innocence, and illegally confinement.

The petitioner, respectfully moves this Honorable Supreme Court, to pursuant, to Fed. R. Civ. Pro. Rule 201 To Take Judicial Notice of the Fact. That in the well establish federal law that has been determine by this Court decision in Harris v. Nelson, 394 US 286 (1968). The Supreme Court held..."There being no higher duty of a court, under our constitutional system, than the careful processing and adjudication of petitions for writ of habeas corpus, the powers of inquiry on federal habeas corpus is plenary, and petitioners in habeas corpus proceeding are entitle to full opportunity for presentation of relevants."

Moreover, the petitioner, arguse, and contends before this Supreme Court, that U.S. Third Circuit Appellate Court, and the U.S. District Court For the Middle District of Pennsylvania unlawful recharacterization of his § 2241(c)(3) Writ of Habeas Corpus Petition, to be an § 2255 motion, and under the § 2255(e) Saving Clause. Thereby afterwards leaving the petitioner, confinement in place upon a capital offense of second degree murder, he was not charged by a Federal Grand Jury, violated his Human Right's pursuant to, the Universal Declaration Human Right's Treaty Adopted, and proclaimed by the General Assembly resolution 217 A (III) of Dec. 1948.

Violated the petitioner, Human Rights under Art. 3. Which clearly states to wit: "Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person."

Violated the petitioner Webb-EL, Human Rights, under Article 4. Which states to wit: ... "No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all forms."

Violated the petitioner, Human Rights, under Article 5. Which states to wit: ... "No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment."

Violated the petitioner, Human Rights under Article 6. Which states to wit: ... "Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law."

Violated the petitioner, Human Rights, under Article 7. Which states to wit: ... "All are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law. All are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination in violation of this Declaration and against any incitement to such discrimination."

Violated the petitioner, Human Rights, under Article 8. Which states to wit: ... "Everyone has the right to an effective remedy by the competent national tribunals for acts violating the fundamental rights granted him by the constitution or by law."

Violated the petitioner, Human Rights under Article 9. Which states to wit: ... "No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention or exile."

Also, the petitioner Webb-EL, argues, and contends herein; that his actual innocence, and illegally confinement claims for habeas corpus relief under § 2241(c)(3). Raised prima facie showing/evidence that demonstrated before both lower federal courts. That it is more likely than not, that no reasonable trial jury would have found the petitioner, guilty of second degree murder. If the trial jury would have known of the petitioner, Newly Discovered Evidence, that the Petitioner Keith B. Webb-EL, was not charged by the Federal Grand Jury, of committing the alleged unlawful criminal conduct capital offense of second degree murder.

That there is a reasonable doubt that no trial jury would have not founded the petitioner Webb-EL, guilty of of committe of committing the non-existening capital offense charge of second degreee murder.

See: Fay v. Noia, 372 US 391 (1963) Where the Supreme Court, held..
.."When a man is brought by Habeas Corpus to the Court, and upon retorn of it, it appears to the Court, that he was against Law imrison'd and detain'd...he shall never be by the Act of the Court remanded to his unlawful imprisonment, for then the Court should do an act of injustice in imprisoning him, de novo, against Law whereas the great Charter is, Qudo nulls libet homo imprisoneture nisi per legem terrae; This the present case, and this was the case, and this was the case upon all the Presidents (precedents) produc'd and many more that might be produc'd, where upon Habeas Corpus, many have been discarg'd."

The petitioner Webb-EL, declare herein before, this Supreme Court, that his present immediate confinement custodian Respendent L.J. Oddo, Warden USP Allenwood, PA continue confinement of the petitioner, for a non-existing capital offense of second degree, of which he was not charge by a Federal Grand Jury. In violation of his Human Right's, and 5th, 8th, and 13th Amendment's Const. Right's.

With no avaiable resource to the petitioner, under § 2241(c)(3) Writ of Habeas Corpus Statute would result in an denial of the petitioner's due process, and equal protection of the Law Right's resulting in a competent miscarriage of justice, that is contraray to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America.

Hence, the petitioner, states herein that pursuant, to the Supreme Court decision in Marbury v. Madison, 1 Cranch 137, 175, 2 L Ed 60 Where the Supreme Court held.."It is emphatically the judicial duties and the province of the Court to say what is the law:"

See: Stone v. Powell, 428 US 465, 49 L Ed 2d 1067, 96 S Ct 3037 (1976. Where the Supreme Court held.. "State courts, like federal courts, have a constitutional obligation to safeguard personal liberties and to uphold federal law."

Verification:

I, Keith B. Webb-EL hereby verify that every statements and allegations I, have made herein is true, and correct to the best of my knowledge, and being made under the penalty of perjury under Title § 1746, on this day 18th month March Year 2019. Keith B. Webb-EL

CONCLUSION

The petitioner WebbEL, so, prays that this most Honorable Supreme Court, shall grant his Writ of Habeas Corpus Petition. And to enter an ORDER directing the petitioner Webb-EL, present physical Confinement Custodian L.J. Oddo, Warden USP Allenwood, PA to release the petitoner, k forwith from its unconstitutionally imposed confinemennt.

Respectfully submitted,

Keith B. Webb-EL
