No. 18-8906

Motion for Petition for Rehearing of the Judgment or decision of the Court on the merits. This petitioner proceeding in forma pauperis under Rule 39. This petition is certify for Rehearing to be presented in good faith and not for delay. The grounds to intervening circumstances of a substantial effect. Unconstitutional behavior of subordinates... Persistently Violating a statutory duty to inquire about such behavior and to be Responsible for presenting it... Failure to train or supervise, individual misconduct. Repeated Examples of Negligent Acts which disclose a pattern of Conduct, deliberate indifference. Prison Officials Violate 8th Amendment of U.S.C. against cruel And Unusual punishment, And unnecessary and wanton infliction of Pain. Forbidden by the Eighth Amendment. Ingraham V. Wright, 430 U.S. 651, 670 (1977) The District Court noted that Petitioner's claims sounded in deliberate indifference. In this case, both the Constitution and the statutory law applied to the particulars at the same time. The Constitution enumerates powers of the judiciary to extend to cases arising "Under the Constitution." Further, justices take a Constitutional Oath to uphold it as "Supreme law of the land."
