

No. 18-9045

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

KEVIN ROBINSON,

- PETITIONER,

-VS.-

PAUL HENZEIL, Esq, et al.,

- RESPONDENT(S).

CERTIFICATE OF GOOD FAITH

COMES NOW Petitioner, Kevin Robinson, and makes certification that his petition for rehearing is presented to this court in good faith pursuant to Rule 44. Mr. Robinson further states the following:

1. This Court entered it's judgment denying Mr. Robinson a Writ of Certiorari on October 7, 2019. Robinson believes he presents this Court with adequate grounds to justify the granting of rehearing in this case and said petition is brought in good faith and not for delay. Furthermore, Robinson believes that based upon the law of this court and facts of this case, he is entitled to some relief which has been unjustly denied him. He further more believes that if the New Jersey Supreme Court and the Third Circuit Court of Appeals are continually allowed to decide important federal questions in a way that conflicts with Strickland v Washington, 466 US 688 (1984); Smith v Phillips, 455 US 209 (1982); and United States v Martinez-Salazar, 528 US 304 (2000), a number of people will be denied their constitutional right to an Effective Assistance of Counsel, an Impartial Jury, Due Process and a Fair trial guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth amendments. Thus, Robinson respectfully request that this Court respond to his petition for rehearing in hopes that it be granted.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 16 day of October, 2019.
