

CERTIFICATE OF GOOD FAITH

I, Blake Sandlain presents this Rehearing in good faith, and assert that the issues presented are not for delay.

SUBSTANTIAL GROUNDS NOT PREVIOUSLY PRESENTED

Petitioner assert that a Rehearing should be granted on the substantial grounds, that Congress intended that the 224 Savings Clause was meant to provide a Defendant an opportunity to be heard in the courts on a intervening statutory interpretation ruling. But the lower district courts are using the 225(h)(2) second or successive which pertains to constitutional claims for the court of appeals to retain jurisdiction, and is blocking Defendants from raising their intervening statutory interpretation rulings under the 224 Savings Clause as Congress intended the 224 to be used for.
