Re: Midwest Machining, Inc. v. Jena McClellan
Case No. 18-928
Petition for Writ of Certiorari

Dear Mr. Harris and Mr. Bickell:

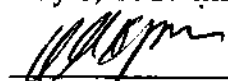

Stipulation to Enlarge Time for Respondent To File Her Brief

The parties hereby stipulate and agree that the Respondent shall have until May 6, 2019 to file her brief in opposition to petitioner's application for a writ of certiorari. The reason for the stipulation is that counsel for Respondent Jena McClellan has an unusually busy calendar for this time of year. As of the date of this letter, counsel has an out-of-town scheduling conference on March 13, 2019, four joint status reports due on March 13, 2019, an all-day mediation on March 14, 2019, an all-day mediation on March 18, 2019, three out-of-town scheduling conferences on March 20, 2019 and three depositions on March 21, 2019 – the date this brief is due. Counsel also has several pleadings due to be filed from March 13 – March 21. From March 22, 2019 – May 5, 2019 counsel for Respondent has 4 scheduling or settlement conferences, 11 depositions, 6 hearings and mediations and a Court of Appeals Brief due.

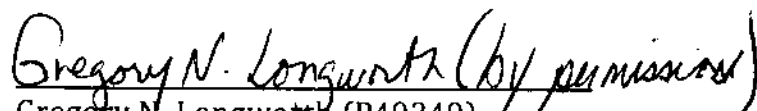

An extension of the deadline to file Respondent Jena McClellan's brief would allow counsel to meet the obligations stated above and give him time to adequately address the issues raised in the petition.

Counsel for Petitioner Gregory N. Longworth has agreed in a telephone conference with counsel for Respondent to extend the deadline for filing Respondent's brief to May 6, 2019. Attorney Longworth has also signed the bottom of this stipulation/letter acknowledging his agreement.

For the above reasons and the fact that petitioner's counsel is agreeable, respondent requests that the extension be granted making Respondent's brief due on May 6, 2019 instead of March 21, 2019.
