Supreme Court of the United States

Office of the Clerk

Washington, D C. 20543-0001

To the Honorable Clarence Thomas

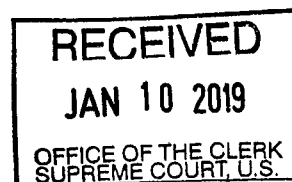

RE: Request for Extension to file Writ, from Alabama Supreme Court, case#1171110

Dear Honorable Justice Clarence Thomas,

My name is Constance F. Russell. I am a pro se' litigant that is appealing to this U.S. Supreme Court, concerning a case that was presented and denied by the Alabama Supreme Court. As a disclosure, I should first make known upfront that my husband is currently on appeal in this U.S. Supreme Court, awaiting on a decision for a Petition for Rehearing, DeAndre' Russell case#18-5765. It is because of the issues, cost and time involved in his case, along with his needed help in drafting my appeal to this court, that I am making this request for an extension to file my Writ at the last hour, for which I ask that your honor would take into consideration, all of the above.

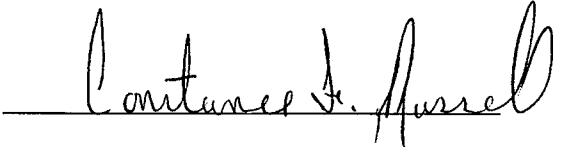

The Writ that I am presenting to this Honorable U.S. Supreme Court, if allowed an extension to file, will carry a subject-matter of how the Alabama Courts are not only violating her Federal Due-Process Rights of the 5th and 14th Amendment, but moreso how the Alabama Courts are violating their own Declaration of Rights under Article I section 6 and 13, involving issues pertaining to the provisions of Rule 60(b).

Ultimately, like my husband's case, this case further displays the issues contained in the newspaper article on how Alabama is treating its citizens when it comes to consumer law, debt collectors and a fresh start, for its citizens.

I am asking that your Honorable Justice, Clarence Thomas, would grant my extension and allow me to now present my case to this court, in the interest of justice.

Respectfully submitted,
