My name is Sheila Robinson, in March 2016, I rented apartment at 3806 West Bay Ave second floor at $600.00 rent and $600.00 security deposit. I thought that it work out ok. I had a stroke and I need a place to stay. My husband call BG&E and was told that It was a balance on the apartment. I call Mr. Barrowski and told him that it was a balance on apartment and Mr. Barrowski hung up. My husband proved it wasn't our bill. The next day I call Mr. Barrowski and the phone went to messaging. I told him that I did want the apartment and I wanted my money back. April the 6th BG&E turn the powder on and April the 15th we move in. May I receive a <sup>letter</sup> later in the mail to come to rent court. I thought that we would get a proration on our rent. I was taken to rent court Apri, May, and June 2016 for late rent. July 2016 I receive a letter from Rental Maintences that they would be the new landlord. I went to talk to the manager to see if I could get prorate on rent. The manager talk to me in the looby, throught the secretary on the phone. The manager didn't want to hear anything that I had to say. November 2016 I receive a court notice and with it was a edviction day. I paid

November rent late. I had paid rent until Janurary 2017. Februry 2017 I was edvict from my apartment and my property was taken. The next day I went to the manager office to see if I could get my property back. I was told that if I would give them $3000.00 they would give my property back. That same day I went to a lawyer and paid $250.00 for to see if that would get my property back. Rental Maintenance took my apartment and property, and thrown me out like animals. I have been going to court every scent.

To be put out like animal with nothing and nowhere to stay. This hurts me a lot and I am mad all the time, I don't sleep much, don't eat much. We lost our son 2012 to a gun. I didn't think that anything could come to the heart break that I fill every day, but this came close. My apartment had my son, mother, mother in law things. Now I have nothing of any of them. Rental Maintenance took my life and no one will ever know what it does to a person head. I just hope that this will not happen to anyone else. I fill that I should be giving $35,000.00 for my property, $25,000.00 for throwing me on the streets, and $10,000 for the navy metals.

Sincerely

Sheila Robinson
