JOSE ANTONIO RAMIREZ-JARAMILLO

JUDGMENT IN A CRIMINAL CASE

The government was represented by Assistant United States Attorney J. Michael Worley. The defendant, JOSE ANTONIO RAMIREZ-JARAMILLO, was represented by Federal Public Defender through Assistant Federal Public Defender William Hermesmeyer.

The defendant pleaded guilty on December 6, 2017 to the one count indictment filed on October 11, 2017. Accordingly, the court ORDERS that the defendant be, and is hereby, adjudged guilty of such count involving the following offense:

Title & Section / Nature of Offense	Date Offense Concluded	Count
8 U.S.C. § 1326(a) and (b)(1) Illegal Reentry After Deportation	August 31, 2017	1

As pronounced and imposed on May 4, 2018, the defendant is sentenced as provided in this judgment.

The court ORDERS that the defendant immediately pay to the United States, through the Clerk of this Court, a special assessment of $100.00.

The court further ORDERS that the defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence address, or mailing address, as set forth below, until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this Judgment are fully paid. If ordered to pay restitution, the defendant shall notify the court, through the clerk of this court, and the Attorney General, through the United States Attorney for this district, of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances.

IMPRISONMENT

The court further ORDERS that the defendant be, and is hereby, committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 34 months.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

The court further ORDERS that, upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years. The court imposed a term of supervised release because it will provide an added measure of deterrence and protection based on the facts and circumstances of the case.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3583(d), as a condition of supervised release, upon the completion of the sentence of imprisonment the defendant shall be surrendered by the Federal Bureau of Prisons to a duly-authorized immigration official for deportation in accordance with the established procedures provided by the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq. As a further condition of supervised release, if ordered deported the defendant shall remain outside the United States.

In the event the defendant is not deported immediately upon release from imprisonment, or should the defendant ever be within the United States during any portion of the term of supervised release, the defendant shall comply with the following conditions:

1. The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
2. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer, as authorized by the Justice for All Act of 2004.
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance, submitting to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the probation officer pursuant to the mandatory drug testing provision of the 1994 crime bill.
5. The defendant shall also comply with the Standard Conditions of Supervision as hereinafter set forth.

Standard Conditions of Supervision

1. The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within seventy-two (72) hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.
3. The defendant shall provide to the U.S. Probation Officer any requested financial information.
4. The defendant shall not leave the judicial district where the defendant is being supervised without the permission of the Court or U.S. Probation Officer.

5. The defendant shall report to the U.S. Probation Officer as directed by the court or U.S. Probation Officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five (5) days of each month.
6. The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the U.S. Probation Officer and follow the instructions of the U.S. Probation Officer.
7. The defendant shall support his dependents and meet other family responsibilities.
8. The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the U.S. Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
9. The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten (10) days prior to any change in residence or employment.
10. The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
11. The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.
12. The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the U.S. Probation Officer.
13. The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the U.S. Probation Officer.
14. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two (72) hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
15. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.
16. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

The court hereby directs the probation officer to provide defendant with a written statement that sets forth all the conditions to which the term of supervised release is subject, as contemplated and required by 18 U.S.C. § 3583(f).

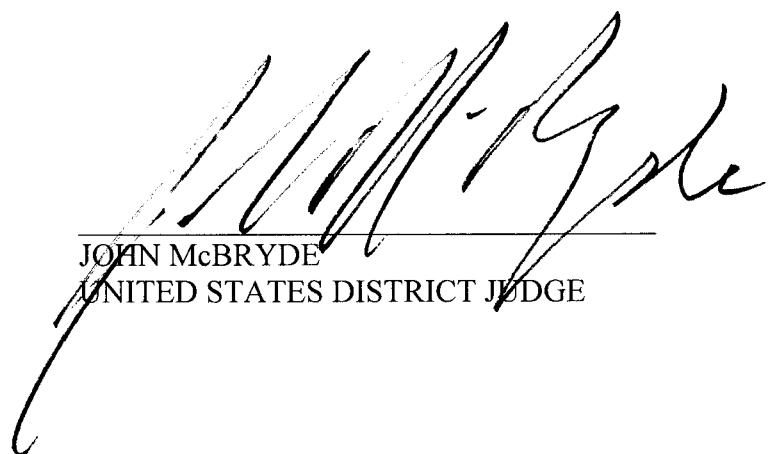

FINE

The court did not order a fine because the defendant does not have the financial resource or future earning capacity to pay a fine.

JOSE ANTONIO RAMIREZ-JARAMILLO,

Defendant - Appellant

Appeals from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
USDC No. 4:17-CR-210-1

Before BARKSDALE, ELROD, and HO, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Jose Antonio Ramirez-Jaramillo pleaded guilty to illegal reentry after deportation, in violation of 8 U.S.C. §1326(a) and (b)(1), (2), and was sentenced, inter alia, to 34 months' imprisonment, which was within the advisory Sentencing Guidelines sentencing range. He contends: because none of his prior convictions qualify as an aggravated felony for purposes of 8 U.S.C. § 1326(b)(2), the district court plainly erred in adopting the recommendation

* Pursuant to 5th Cir. R. 47.5, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5th Cir. R. 47.5.4.

No. 18-10589

in the presentence investigation report (to which Ramirez did not object) that the applicable statutory maximum was 20 years' imprisonment.

As Ramirez concedes, because he did not raise this issue in district court, review is only for plain error. E.g., United States v. Broussard, 669 F.3d 537, 546 (5th Cir. 2012). Under that standard, Ramirez must show a forfeited plain (clear or obvious) error that affected his substantial rights. Puckett v. United States, 556 U.S. 129, 135 (2009). If he does so, we have the discretion to correct the reversible plain error, but should do so only if it "seriously affect[s] the fairness, integrity or public reputation of judicial proceedings". Id.

Even assuming none of Ramirez' prior convictions qualify as an aggravated felony, he has not shown that any error affected his substantial rights. The record does not show the court's selection of the within-Guidelines 34-month sentence was affected in any way by a belief that the statutory maximum sentence was 20 years, pursuant to § 1326(b)(2), rather than 10 years, pursuant to § 1326(b)(1) (the judgment uses the latter sub-section). See United States v. Mondragon-Santiago, 564 F.3d 357, 368–69 (5th Cir. 2009); see also United States v. Rodriguez-Garcia, 2018 WL 4339799, at *1 (5th Cir. 2018) (stating Molina-Martinez v. United States, 136 S. Ct. 1338, 1346, 1348 (2016) does not require a different result).

AFFIRMED.
