Re: U.S. Supreme Court No. 18-9669
Floyd M. Chodosh, et al, Petitioners v. Palm Beach Park Association,
Respondent
On Petition for a Writ of Certiorari to the California Fourth District Court of Appeal, Division Three
Re: Application for Extension of Time to File Brief
in Opposition to Petition for Writ of Certiorari

To the Honorable Supreme Court Justices:

Respondent Palm Beach Park Association<sup>1</sup> respectfully requests an extension of time of thirty days to file its brief in opposition to Petitioners' Petition for a Writ of Certiorari, which was filed in this Court on June 11, 2019. Respondent's opposition

Association has no parent corporation and no publicly traded corporation owns ten percent or more of its stock.

brief is currently due on July 15, 2019. Respondent requests a thirty-day extension to August 14, 2019.

On June 11, 2019, Petitioners Floyd M. Chodosh, Sue Eicherly and Ole Haugen filed a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari together with appendices containing 98 pages. I have completed a draft of the brief in opposition, and while it was my intention to file the brief by the due date of July 15, 2019, I have encountered some unexpected medical issues that have delayed completion of the final version of the brief in opposition. On June 28, 2019, I was diagnosed with bladder cancer, which required unplanned time out of the office since the diagnosis. I also have exploratory surgery scheduled for July 12, 2019, and I am uncertain as to when I can resume normal business activities following the surgery.

Further, I have three additional appellate briefs due on July 15, 2019, including an opening brief in a preference case, Badgarsarian v. Skillserve, Inc. (Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. 19LBCV00238); an amicus brief in Busker v. Wabtec (Cal. Supreme Court No. S251135); and a respondent's brief in Pollock v. Kelso (Cal. Court of Appeal No. B294872). In addition, I have a respondent's brief due in Harris, et al. v. University Village (Cal. Court of Appeal No. B293290) on July 18, 2019, and a respondent's brief due in Robertson v. Peyman (Cal. Court of Appeal No. B292448) on July 18, 2019.

A thirty-day extension will allow Respondent to finalize the current draft of the brief in opposition and properly print the brief according to Supreme Court Rules.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,
