Actions other than for recovery of real property shall be commenced as follows:

- (1) Within twenty years. An action on a judgment or decree of a court of record in this state.
- (2) Within five years.

(a) An action on a judgment or decree of any court, not of record, of this state or any court of the United States, any other state or territory in the United States, or a foreign country.

(b) A legal or equitable action on a contract, obligation, or liability founded on a written instrument, except for an action to enforce a claim against a payment bond, which shall be governed by the applicable provisions of paragraph (5)(e), s. 255.05(10), s. 337.18(1), or s. 713.23(1)(e), and except for an action for a deficiency judgment governed by paragraph (5)(h).

(c) An action to foreclose a mortgage.

(d) An action alleging a willful violation of s. 448.110.

(e) Notwithstanding paragraph (b), an action for breach of a property insurance contract, with the period running from the date of loss.

(3) Within four years.

(a) An action founded on negligence.

(b) An action relating to the determination of paternity, with the time running from the date the child reaches the age of majority.

(c) An action founded on the design, planning, or construction of an improvement to real property, with the time running from the date of actual possession by the owner, the date of the issuance of a certificate of occupancy, the date of abandonment of construction if not completed, or the date of completion of the contract or termination of the contract between the professional engineer, registered architect, or licensed contractor and his or her employer, whichever date is latest; except that, when the action involves a latent defect, the time runs from the time the defect is discovered or should have been discovered with the exercise of due diligence. In any event, the action must be commenced within 10 years after the date of actual possession by the owner, the date of the issuance of a certificate of occupancy, the date of abandonment of construction if not completed, or the date of completion of the contract or termination of the contract between the professional engineer, registered architect, or licensed contractor and his or her employer, whichever date is latest. However, counterclaims, cross-claims, and third-party claims that arise out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set out or attempted to be set out in a pleading may be commenced up to 1 year after the pleading to which such claims relate is served, even if such claims would otherwise be time barred. With respect to actions founded on the design, planning, or construction of an improvement to real property, if such construction is performed pursuant to a duly issued building permit and if a local enforcement agency, state enforcement agency, or special inspector, as those terms are defined in s. 553.71, has issued a final certificate of occupancy or certificate of completion, then as to the construction which is within the scope of such building permit and certificate, the correction of defects to completed work or repair of completed work, whether performed under warranty or otherwise, does not extend the period of time within which an action must be commenced. Completion of the contract means the later of the date of final performance of all the contracted services or the date that final payment for such services becomes due without regard to the date final payment is made.

However, the limitation of actions herein for professional malpractice shall be limited to persons in privity with the professional.

birthday. An action for medical malpractice is defined as a claim in tort or in contract for damages because of the death, injury, or monetary loss to any person arising out of any medical, dental, or surgical diagnosis, treatment, or care by any provider of health care. The limitation of actions within this subsection shall be limited to the health care provider and persons in privity with the provider of health care. IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

RAYMOND TYRONE LEWIS, PETITIONER
VS.
WILLIAM O. FARMER ET. AL., RESPONDENT(S)

CERTIFICATE OF INTERVENING
CIRCUMSTANCES OF CONTROLLING EFFECT

I Raymond Tyrone Lewis would submit as grounds for relief the controlling effect of the fact that in accordance with Rule 55 (a) which reads; "When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend, and that failure is shown by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk must enter the party's default." failure by the Clerk to do so creates the controlling issue that denied Petitioner the Due Process Right to a default judgment.

This violates the Federal Civil Rules of Procedure and the Federal Constitution. It erroneously creates a miscarriage of justice. This Court as a matter of great public importance requires this court to correct and avoid a manifest injustice. If the Clerk is allowed to apply this rule to the cases that they wish to and not apply the rule to others, it creates a violation of one's Due Process Right and the Court must correct this injustice and insist that the relief afforded by Rule 55 (a) be applied to every case when a party fails to defend. This ground is limited to the requirement of record and are intervening circumstance of substantial or controlling effect or grounds previously presented. I hereby certify a true and correct copy of this certificate has been placed in the hands of Graceville C.F. officials to be sent to each party by U.S. mail to counsel for respondents: Attorney General PL-01, The Capitol Tallahassee Fla. 32399-2500 On 31st day of November 2019.
