Scott S. Harris Clerk of the Court Supreme Court of the United States 1 First Street, NE Washington, DC 20543

Re: McKesson Corp., et al. v. True Health Chiropractic, Inc., et al., No. 18-987.

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to Rule 30.4, I write to request a 60-day extension of time for Respondents, True Health Chiropractic, Inc. and McLaughlin Chiropractic Assocs., Inc., to respond to the petition for writ of certiorari in this case. Respondents' brief in opposition to certiorari is currently due April 12, 2019. I respectfully request an extension of time through and including May 13, 2019, to file respondents' brief in opposition.

An extension is justified due to the press of other business. On March 25, 2019, undersigned counsel of record for respondents is arguing before this Court in PDR Network, LLC v. Carlton & Harris Chiropractic, Inc., No. 17-1705. Undersigned counsel's reply brief is due April 3, 2019, in Gorss Motels, Inc., et al. v. Safemark Systems, LP, No. 18-15232-FF (11th Cir.). Undersigned counsel intends to file comments responding to a petition filed by Akin Gump on April 8, 2019, the deadline set by the Federal Communications Commission, see https://ecfsapi.fcc.gov/file/0307270201460/DA-19-159A1.pdf. And counsel intends to file on or before May 21, 2019, a petition for a writ of certiorari on behalf of the plaintiff in Brodsky v. HumanaDental Ins. Co., 910 F.3d 285 (7th Cir. 2018) (petition for rehearing denied Feb. 20, 2019). An extension in this matter is appropriate to allow counsel time to adequately prepare a brief in opposition.

Accordingly, I respectfully request an extension of 60 days, until June 11, 2019, to file respondents' brief in opposition to the petition for writ of certiorari.

Thank you for consideration of my request.

¹ On November 16, 2018, the Court granted petitioners' request for a 58-day extension of time in which to file the petition.

Very truly yours,

Glenn L. Hara
