District Court: 4:17-cv-00106-ODS
Eighth Circuit: 17-3389
Supreme Court: _____

Request Extension Of Time

Comes now Appellant, Ja'Juan Williams, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court for an extension of time and states as follows:

1. Appellant is incarcerated at the Moberly Correctional Center and has commenced this action pro se.

2. Appellant's request for extension of time is not:

(A) interposed for improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay,

(B) inconsistent with these rules and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument under the circumstances, and

(C) to cause unreasonable or unduly burdensome work.

3. Appellant states, declares and deposes, 1) the library here at Moberly Correctional Center (MCC) is inadequately supplied. There are approximately 1900 prisoners here, in which the law library is open to approximately 15 people on any given work day. The law library is only supplied with 5 computers and there are no law books to substitute for not being able to utilize a computer, 2) the librarians close the library at least three
