IN THE

Supreme Court of the United States

October Term, 2018

PETER P. MITRANO,

Petitioner,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and KERI A. ADORISIO,

Respondents.

APPENDIX A
On Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit
~~RECEIVED BY CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES~~

Directed To The Honorable John G. Roberts, Jr.
Chief Justice of the United States
Circuit Justice for the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit

Application to Extend Time to File Petition for Writ of Certiorari

The petitioner, Peter P. Mitrano, pro se, states his Application to Extend Time to File Petition for Writ of Certiorari as follows:

Parties to the Proceeding

The caption of this case in this Supreme Court of the United States contains the name of the parties. Neither party is a parent, subsidiary or affiliate of any company.

The petitioner, Peter P. Mitrano, pro se, respectfully requests an extension of time of 60 days to file his Petition for Writ of Certiorari in the above-captioned action.

The reason for the same is that the undersigned is a sixty-six-year-old senior citizen presently working as a civil engineer at the Conely Terminal in Boston, Massachusetts overseeing concrete work that is being installed so that larger ships may dock at said Conely Terminal. The work requires a substantial time commitment and a substantial amount of travel commuting to and from work.

The petitioner Mitrano has determined that it would be in the best interest of justice for this Supreme Court to review this action. The reason for the delay is that other work and legal matters have required a substantial amount of the undersigned's time and effort. The petitioner Mitrano apologizes to this Supreme Court and opposing counsel for the delay in filing this application.

This action involves important legal issues including but not limited to The Posse Comitatus Act and the application of the Rooker-Feldman Doctrine.

A copy of the decision from the Federal Circuit, Mitrano v. United States, No. 17-35460, ____ Fed.Appx. ____ (May 22, 2018) is attached hereto.

This Supreme Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, Section 1254(1).

Conclusion

For these reasons, the petitioner, Peter P. Mitrano, pro se, respectfully requests this Honorable Supreme Court grant this Application to Extend Time to File Petition for Writ of Certiorari.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter P. Mitrano
