

CASE NO. _____

IN THE
UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

JAMES S. FALLER II, - PETITIONER

VS.

GENE BEASLEY - WARDEN

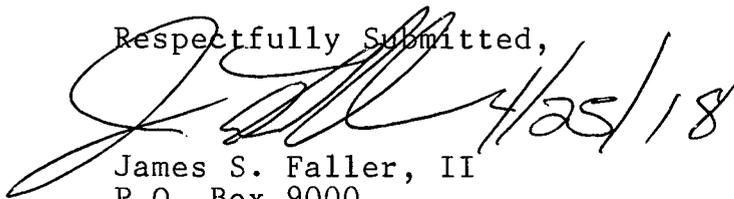

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE EXCESS PAGES

COMES NOW PETITIONER, James S. Faller II, who files this motion to file (4) four excess pages in his Writ of Habeas Corpus. As good cause, Faller shows as follows;

The underlying matter involves (2) two wrongful convictions of an actually innocent man. These matters took place over a period of more than (20) twenty years, in multiple jurisdictions and multiple matters.

The Petitioner has attached to the Petition (Appendice 1) a sworn affirmation from the Deputy Chief of Staff of the Lt. Governor's Office of Kentucky that this matter is of significant importance to the state of Kentucky in the war on corruption.

Respectfully Submitted,

James S. Faller, II
