

The Supreme Court of The United States

Fred Lee Johnson,
Petitioner,

-v- Civil Action No. 3:17cv239

-Eddie L. Pearson
Respondent,

Motion For Extension of Time

Your respondent, pro se, hereby asks this Court to extend the time for filing of a response in this case and states as follows:

1. Petitioner, is at a place where he do not have any legal materials, such as, cases, no typewriter, no legal help what so ever to defend my case without any help from legal representation.

2. Given the foregoing, defendant asks the Court to extend the due date for a responsive pleading in this case.

3. There is nothing at VCBR to help me to fight to go through case and pin point exactly what I need,

I have the name of the cases and all these cases represent my argument and proof of what I'm claiming.

On this date October 19, 2018, Defendant prays that the Court grant him a continuance, to find a better and right way to present his claim.
