

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE
UNITED STATES

LAVAUGHN WEATHERLY,

Petitioner,

U.S. Supreme Court - T.B.A.

L.J. Case No. 18-12731-C

v.

JULIE JONES, Sec'y.

Fla. Dept. of Corr.,

Respondent,

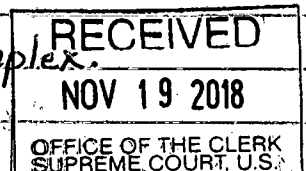

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Pursuant to "U.S. Supreme Court Rule 13.5"
Petitioner, LaVaughn Weatherly, Pro Se, moves this Honorable Court to please grant a 60 day extension of time to prepare and file his "Petition for a Writ of Certiorari," for the following reasons below:

1) Petitioner is a "pro se" litigant and first time offender, therefore inexperienced with research and preparing his "Petition for a Writ of Certiorari."

2) Accessibility to law library: Due to a scheduling of once every 40 days until 30 day deadline, and, allotted time period for research of only 1.5 hrs.

3) Issues involved in proceeding are complex.

4) Accessibility to law library with restricted movement due to Hurricane Michael emergency status and lockdown of institutions in panhandle of Florida.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a true and correct copy of the foregoing document has been placed into the hands of prison officials at Blackwater River Correctional Facility for pre-paid First Class U.S. mailing on this 8 day of November, 2018 to:
