

District of Columbia Court of Appeals

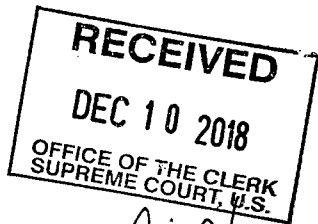

No. 17-CV-1141

Ricardo A. Bopp, Appellant,

v.

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. Appellee.

Appeal from the Superior Ct. of the District of Columbia (CAR-5374-15)

Application to file for Extension of Time to file writ

The petitioner, Ricardo Bopp, hereby request that this honorable court grant him an extension of time to file for writ of certiorari—

The extension requested is 60 days. The Petitioner hereby states the following as extraordinary circumstances and a

and a need to have the extension as follows.

I am a Native of Chile but an American Citizen.

On September 8, 2018, I learned that my father in law became deathly ill. Myself, my wife, and entire family was forced to essentially pick up without notice and changed country. My daughter also became ill while I was in Chile. I did not charge anyone with checking my postal mail as I did not have time. Upon my return on November 28th, 2018. I learned of court proceeding and also the September, 13, 2018 decision that placed the my final order regarding the judgment.

I humbly pray this honorable court grant this extension for time. This is my first request and the other side will not be prejudiced.

RICARDO A. BOPP
DEC 10, 2018