Petitioner's Petition for Leave to Appeal. See Group Exhibit 1¹

. The erroneous ruling(s) (Group Exhibit 1) of are more than just bad decisions but will result in harmful precedent that should not be ignored because it conflicts with the Illinois and Federal Constitutions prohibition against laws abridging freedom of speech and the ability of citizens to petition the government, including the courts, for the redress of grievances. Ill.Const.1970, art. I, §§ 4, 12; U.S. Const. Amd. I.

The Bill of Rights to the Illinois Constitution provides that “all persons may speak, write and publish freely,” Ill.Const.1970, art. I, § 4, and that every person shall find a certain remedy in the laws for all injuries and wrongs which he receives. He shall obtain justice by law, freely, completely, and promptly,” Id. § 12.

The First Amendment, applicable to the States under the Fourteenth Amendment, states that Congress shall make no law abridging freedom of speech and “the right of the people peaceably to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.” U.S. Const. Amd. I.

.Petitioner's motion for an extension is necessary in order to obtain counsel to make his case for Leave to File a Writ of Certiorari .

good reason to believe that the high court will want to correct the lower courts error(s) in favor of the Petitioner, which affects every person² in the United States³.

Petitioner is a 26 year old disabled person, on Social Security Disability, is requesting a 60 extension of time to retain counsel in his appeal to overturn the erroneous orders issued by the Seven Circuit Court of Appeals. Petitioner's appeal(s) have merit and raises interesting questions of law, which the High Court will want to hear.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner is thus requesting a 60 day extension of time, to obtain counsel in order to file a Writ of Certiorari up and until April 02, 2018, 2018. What ever other relief that the court deems fit and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Christopher Stoller
