

January 3, 2019

To: Chief Justice John Roberts of the United States Supreme Court

Dear Justice Roberts,

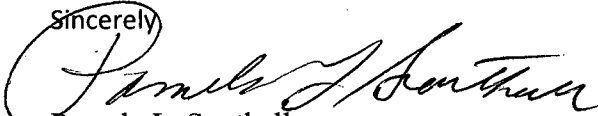

My name is Pamela Linnette Southall from Chesapeake, Virginia. I am prayerfully asking for an extension of filing my appeal from the 4th Circuit of Virginia.

I was diagnosed with State 4 colon Cancer on September 4, 2018 and was hospitalized on September the 10th and remained in the hospital and rehabilitation for 55 days. Due to the colleen surgeries and as you can imagine the severe stress I had no accessibility to my emails during those periods. At the same time Mr. Henry M. Southall, my father was in hospice care in Dallas Texas and he became seriously ill on December the 10th 2018. He transitioned on December 23, 2018 and his funeral was on December 29, 2018. I am still under home health care with a caregiver and I am currently undergoing a severe regiment of chemo therapy with Bon Secour Infusion center.

I am prayerfully trying to do the best of my ability to handle this process and have currently been as a prose litigant.

I am prayerfully asking for a 60 day extension in order for me to heal and to prepare this case in order to please the highest court of the United States that highly respect.

Sincerely

Pamela L. Southall
