APPLICATION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME

Pursuant to Rule 13.5 of the Rules of this Court, Applicant Timothy Ring hereby requests a 60-day extension of time within which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari up to and including Monday, May 20, 2019.

JUDGMENT FOR WHICH REVIEW IS SOUGHT

The judgment for which review is sought is Timothy Ring v. Charles L. Ryan, No. 18-15458 (November 16, 2018) (attached as Exhibit 1). The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit denied Applicant's petition for rehearing en banc on December 21, 2018 (attached as Exhibit 2).

JURISDICTION

This Court will have jurisdiction over any timely filed petition for certiorari in this case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1254(1). Under Rules 13.1, 13.3, and 30.1 of the Rules of this Court, a petition for a writ of certiorari was due to be filed on or before March 21, 2019. In accordance with Rule 13.5, this application is being filed more than 10 days in advance of the filing date for the petition for a writ of certiorari.

REASONS JUSTIFYING AN EXTENSION OF TIME

Applicant respectfully requests a 60-day extension of time within which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari seeking review of the decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in this case, up to and including May 20, 2019.

1. Applicant has requested that the Northwestern University School of Law Supreme Court Practicum assist in the preparation of his petition. An extension of time will permit the students the time necessary to complete a cogent and well-researched petition.

2. The further extension of time is also necessary because of the press of other client business. For example, in the coming months, the Northwestern Practicum has several overlapping commitments representing other clients in this Court, including a respondent's brief on the merits in United States v. Davis (18-431), a brief in opposition in Gittere v. Echavarria (18-756), a reply brief in Quintana v. Colorado (18-6728), and petitions for a writ of certiorari in Apelt v. Ryan (18A656) and Lopez v. Massachusetts (18A762). Mr. Green is also appointed counsel in six D.C. Court of Appeals cases currently briefing and/or preparing for oral argument (Johnson v. United States, No. 13-CF-493; General v. United States, No. 16-CF-0822; Minor v. United States, No. 18-CF-0686; Young v. United States, No. 18-CF-0694; Gordon v. United States, Nos. 17-CO-814 and 17-CO-1295; and Neal v. United States, No. 17-CF-1346) and has ongoing litigation in the District Court for the District of Columbia. A 60-day extension for the Applicant would allow Mr. Green the necessary amount of time to effectively contribute to all open matters including Applicant's petition as well as his other client business abroad, and would also allow the Northwestern Practicum students sufficient time for research and drafting efforts per Applicant's request.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Applicant respectfully requests that this Court grant an extension of 60 days, up to and including May 20, 2019, within which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari in this case.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH O'ROURKE SCHRUP
