

In the United States

Supreme Court

Raymond E. Adams II,

Plaintiff,

v.

United States of America,

Defendants.

Previous Case No. 17-2845

The motion to direct the Clerk to file a petition for a writ of certiorari out of time.

Due to the unique nature of this vitally important case, I would hereby like to ask that the Court would allow for an extension of time, being past the 90 days allowed to file. Due to complications within the court process and communication errors that has occurred in regards to this very unique case. It is an Exceptionally Important Federal Question that Warrants the Courts Immediate Review and is also a Case of National Importance. It is also a matter of national security, and failure to do so could ultimately result in forms of war being used as a direct result of the matter.
