

July 18, 2019

Law Clerk Office
US Supreme Court of Justice
1 First Street NE
Washington, DC 20543

Attention: Mr. Scott S. Harris
Mr. Clayton Higgins

Dear Sirs:

Re.: Petition for Writ of Certiorari – Irazu, Fernando Gabriel v. Oliva Sainz de Aja, Margarita.

I am writing to you in connection with the above referenced-matter, which now comprises two Petitions for Writ of Certiorari before the Court: (i) Docket No. 18-1376 –filed on 4/15/2019 and scheduled to be distributed for conference on 10/1/2019–; and (ii) the one attached hereto.

The overall topic addressed in the petition filed today was presented in general terms as question # 4 in the previous one, which in fact condensed three cases from the Appellate Court of Connecticut: (i) AC 41455 (substantive family proceedings); (ii) AC 41598 (consolidated sua sponte into AC 41455) (magistrate disqualification and transfer to federal venue); and (iii) AC 42118 (civil restraining order).

However, the Appellate Court of Connecticut sua sponte reversed its ruling as to AC 42118 post-filing of the Petition for Certification before the local Supreme Court at the time, and ultimately issued a new ruling post-filing of the Petition for Writ of Certiorari dated 4/15/2019, Docket No. 18-1376 (meaning the final ruling on AC 42118 was still pending on that date).

Based on its legal characteristics, such new and final ruling from the Appellate Court of Connecticut regarding AC 42118 presents constitutional issues on its own, which are carefully elaborated in the attached petition to the Court –a supplemental brief would have not been the proper legal course of action to adequately address such concerns.

Having said that, it should be respectfully noted that both petitions before the Court are inherently interconnected and it would better serve the interest of justice if they were jointly appreciated next 10/1/2019, regardless of their respective status quo within the process before the Court.

The overall frame and conclusion of the case engulfing the parties up to the present date is reflected in the petition of today's date, as well as all rulings, selected transcripts and evidence, normative text, and ancillary included in its respective appendix.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to be 'f. irazu', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Fernando G. IRAZU
Bar # 310318
34 Boulder Brook Rd.
Greenwich, CT 06830
fgirazu@gmail.com
203 570-8318