this civil rights case, the plaintiff filed a notice of appeal from an order denying a motion for a temporary restraining order.

“Federal appellate courts have jurisdiction over appeals only from (1) a final decision under 28 U.S.C. § 1291; (2) a decision that is deemed final due to jurisprudential exception or that has been properly certified as final pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b); and (3) interlocutory orders that fall into specific classes, 28 U.S.C. § 1292(a), or that have been properly certified for appeal by the district court, 28 U.S.C. § 1292(b).” Askanase v. City of Austin, 748 F.2d 941, 949 (5th Cir. 1984) (temporary restraining orders do not come within meaning of “injunction” in 28 U.S.C. § 1292(a)(1)), nor does it come within any of the other categories that would make it immediately appealable. Accordingly, the appeal is DISMISSED for want of jurisdiction.

ORDER DENYING PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR EMERGENCY TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Before the Court is a Motion for Emergency Temporary Restraining Order (“TRO”) filed by pro se Plaintiff George Andrew Benavides (“Plaintiff”) on June 19, 2020. (Dkt. # 87.) After careful consideration and review, the Court DENIES the motion.

BACKGROUND

Plaintiff filed his original complaint on April 29, 2019. (Dkt. # 1.) In response to Magistrate Judge Bemporad's Order to Show Cause (Dkt. # 18), Plaintiff filed an amended complaint on October 11, 2019. (Dkt. # 24.) Plaintiff sought around $1.5 million in damages based on allegations that, in 1993, doctors in the United States Navy implanted devices inside Plaintiff's teeth that intercept his thoughts and broadcasts those thoughts to the Government. (Dkt. # 24.) In his Report and Recommendation to this Court, Magistrate Judge Bemporad concluded that Plaintiff failed to state non-frivolous claims upon which relief may be granted and failed to provide substantial evidence supporting his motions for default judgment. (See Dkt. # 56.) Magistrate Judge Bemporad found that Plaintiff's response to the Court's original Order to Show Cause (Dkt. # 18) was "entirely repetitive of his original complaint" as it included "no additional details that would make his claim appear plausible on its face" and that the claims occurred outside the two-year statute of limitations period for civil rights claims against the Government. (Dkt. # 56 at 3–4.)

This Court adopted the Report and Recommendation and denied Plaintiff's eight motions for entry of default judgment, dismissing the case with prejudice as frivolous. (Dkt. # 71.) Plaintiff appealed, and the Fifth Circuit denied his petition for rehearing (Dkt. # 85), affirming this Court's judgment (Dkt. # 86).

Plaintiff now seeks a TRO “for the protection of evidence and documents and the safety of his life and immediate family and friends and illegal exposure to society and to the government.” (Dkt. # 87.) Plaintiff re-asserts the arguments brought to this Court’s attention in his previous filings and argues that he has met the legal requirements under Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. (Id.)

DISCUSSION

The Court finds that Plaintiff provides insufficient support to merit a TRO. To obtain a TRO, a plaintiff must establish that (1) there is a substantial likelihood that it will prevail on the merits; (2) there is a substantial threat that irreparable harm will result if the injunction is not granted; (3) the threatened injury to the plaintiff outweighs whatever damage the proposed injunctive relief would cause the defendant; and (4) the granting of the injunction is not adverse to the public interest. Anderson v. Jackson, 556 F.3d 351, 360 (5th Cir. 2009) (quoting Canal Auth. v. Callaway, 489 F.2d 567, 572 (5th Cir. 1974)). Normally, if a party cannot prove all four elements, a court must deny the injunctive relief since “[t]he decision to grant a preliminary injunction is to be treated as the exception rather than the rule.” Miss. Power & Light Co. v. United Gas Pipe Line Co., 760 F.2d 618, 621 (5th Cir. 1985).

Plaintiff fails to provide any reason or evidence as to why the Court should grant him such an exception. The Court previously found Petitioner's arguments frivolous, which weighs against the first element that a plaintiff must establish to obtain a TRO. The Court stands by its order dismissing this case and finds that Plaintiff's Motion for Emergency TRO should be denied.

CONCLUSION

In light of the foregoing, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion for Emergency Temporary Restraining Order (Dkt. # 87).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: San Antonio, Texas, June 23, 2020.

PLAINTIFF,

v.

SA-19-CA-440-DAE

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY GENERAL
WILLIAM BARR, et al,
RESPONDENT(S)

PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR EMERGENCY TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 65(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Petitioner, GEORGE ANDREW BENAVIDES, hereby applies to this court for emergency temporary restraining order ("TRO") In support of the motion while this case is being observed by the United States Supreme Court, Case No 19-1289, Petitioner files this motion for the protection of evidence and documents and the safety of his life and immediate family and friends and illegal exposure to society and to the government, Petitioner states as follows:

1. Petitioner brings this action to halt Respondent's unfair "spying" or illegal eavesdropping, wiretapping and torture by utilizing satellite and satellite weapons and tracking devices such as computers, smart phones, tv or tv services, cable services, tv media or tv shows, telephone, social media such as Twitter, Facebook, internet services such as Google, Yahoo, Samsung telephone and internet services, sprint telephone and internet services, T-

Mobile telephone services, automobile tracking devices or gps, human implant and tracking devices or utilizing neighbors living in the vicinity of me to spy or illegal eavesdrop or wiretap or use any torture weapons operated by space weapons or satellite weapons to manipulate my thoughts or thinking patterns. This behavior should stop immediately and always while this case is in progress.

2. The question in relation to this case is that the Respondents had no federal court order to legally spy, track or torture me since 1994. Why does the spying and torture continue after there is a court case in progress? See United States Supreme Court Case No. 19-1289 Benavides v. Barr
3. The Respondents should not be holding meetings of the "mind" by the United States Congress, or United States Senate, holding hearings or gatherings to illegally intercept my thoughts or ideas using satellites and satellite weapons, while I am asleep or awake or in my home or friends' home or someone else home. Neither should they be questioning immediately family or friends while this case is in progress in the United States Supreme Court Case No. 19-1289, George Andrew Benavides V. United States Attorney General William Barr, et. al.
4. The Respondents should not be destroying or tampering with federal evidence by tampering with my phones: Samsung model number SM-N960U, or other sprint phones and application such as twitter or other applications to report crimes or write notes to federal authorities while this case is in progress as self-defense. See 18 U.S.C § 1512.
5. As a result of the foregoing, Defendants are engaged in ongoing violations of United States Constitution, The Espionage Act of 1917, 42 U.S.C. § 1983, 18 U.S.C. §242, 18 U.S.C. § 241, 18 U.S.C. §2511, 18 U.S.C. §2518,

18 U.S.C. §2510, 18 U.S.C. § 2516, 18 U.S.C. §2381, 8 U.S.C. § 2340(A)

6. The Petitioner therefore seeks a TRO:

- a) Temporarily restraining and enjoining Respondents from disclosing or gathering any protected information under the Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution without first implementing reasonable safeguards to maintain and protect the privacy, security, confidentiality, and integrity of such protected information; such as a federal court order.
- b) Temporarily restraining order and enjoining Respondents disclosing or gathering or benefiting from any protected information that any Respondents disclosed prior to the date of entry of TRO and without having implemented reasonable safeguards to maintain and protect the privacy, security, confidentiality, and integrity of such protected information; such as a federal court order.
- c) Requiring Respondents and any person hosting or otherwise controlling any internet content, server, or website that contains protected information posted by me or on, behalf of any Respondents to immediately take steps to ensure that the protected information on any website, blog, or social media service is no longer viewable or accessible by person using the internet; prevent the alteration, destruction, or erasure of any internet content, servers, or websites that contain protected information posted by me or Respondents and implement reasonable safeguards to maintain and protect the privacy, security, confidentiality, and integrity of any protected information; such as a federal court order.
- d) Requiring Respondents to provide notification to each person whose protected information they disclose without implementing and using reasonable safeguards to maintain and protect the privacy, security, confidentiality, and integrity of such protected information.

The United States was established based on laws and policies to help regulate civil liberties of Americans. Procedures and laws were created, so that our government may not deprive any American without due process of the law. Common law was written and recorded so that our governments may not abuse the power of courts in America. If the United States Supreme Court has decided on a particular case involving the violation of a statutory law, then that law or complaint should not be brought to the attention of the U.S Supreme Court justice again. It should be up to the righteousness judicial conduct of a judge from a lower court to correct the behavior of any government agency who has violated the laws of the state or the laws of the United States Constitution. If a judge knowingly prevents the deprivation of your constitutional rights knowing that the complaint affects other Americans or society, then that judge should be punished and stripped of his duties of being a judge. A judge should not be in any court, if he has conflict in a particular case because of his or hers prejudice or investments in the stock market or his investment in any particular company who created the personal injury or crime to a particular case he or she is judging.

In 1993 I walked into the Marine Corps recruiting depot Meps station San Antonio, Texas and enlisted. It was during this time that the United States Federal government had legal duty to investigate or inspect my background before enlisting. It was during this time that I was approved to enlist in the United States Marines. I didn't enlist with an implant or tracking device inside of me, nor was I broadcasting the privacy of my life to society or government.

In 1994 while serving in the United States Marines during the Gulf War, the United States Navy without my consent, without a federal court order or without probable cause illegally spied on me. No one, while serving in the United States Military should be broadcasting to the enemy, government or society any military intelligence during a time of war. Once my career had ended in 1998 the United States Navy had a legal duty to cease the torture, spying or remove or take back all federal government property from me when my career had ended in the United States Marine Corps. In this case the United States Navy neglected to do that, which is the basis of this complaint.

Since being discharged from the United States Marines in 1998 I had a legal duty stop the illegal actions conducted on me by the United States Navy since it involved military information. On May 15, 2000 I attempted to cease this illegal behavior by the United States Navy and the United States Department of Veterans Affairs. The United States Federal Judge at that time was Judge, Edward C. Prado and law clerk, Henry Bemporad who threw the court case out of court. If a judge knew that illegal spying was going on and it affected society as well as myself, then why didn't he hear or try the case in May of 2000? Because of judge Edward C. Prado decision to throw the case out of court, this only identified that I was mentally disturbed for filing a frivolous court case and left me know choice but to file a case with United States Department of Veterans Affairs. The DVA had a legal duty to investigate my case to see if the illegal spying and torturing was going on before issuing a compensation. Instead they wrongfully diagnose me as schizophrenia or delusional prism disorder and compensate me at One-hundred (%100). Since the DVA has wrongfully diagnose me and didn't investigate my complaint, then it would be my duty again to investigate why my case is not being investigated. In 2007 I met with FBI agent Gary Simons who told me that my complaint is not real and that he would not investigate my case. If United States Congressman and United States Senators are deprived from investigating a civil rights complaint brought to them by me. Then who has the legal duty to investigate those who are supposed to be investigating my complaint who violated the United States Constitution? Two United States Congressman were asked to investigate my case but where not allowed. Why?

Why is it that the United States Federal Government continue to neglect to continue to investigate my case but then leave it up to society and the government to breach my privacy and civil rights by projecting what I am thinking or doing to society or the government on a daily basis? Isn't this a violation of my 4th amendment rights? isn't this a violation of my civil rights? Isn't this illegal eavesdropping and wiretapping without a federal court order? Isn't this a violation of the espionage act of 1917 that since 1994 during the gulf war the United States Navy until this present time still has not yet to stop the spying on me?

No government or judicial officer of any federal court or federal agency should neglect to stop a crime and tort that is in progress when a complaint is brought to his or her attention only to invest or manipulate the stock market or assist in any illegal dealing to save a company from investing in the illegal production of spying devices or tracking devices used on any American without due process of the law.

Since 1994 I have been violated of my civil rights and bribe to keep an illegal action quiet by the compensation of the United States Department of Veterans Affairs who wrongfully diagnosed me only to violate my constitutional rights to bar me from self-security and protection under 1st Amendment right to bear arms and protection. They have exposed my life and immediate family and friends to terrorism and immediate danger and it is unconstitutional.

No Federal Government should neglect to assist Americans on a federal civil rights complaint when brought to their attention only protect their federal government agencies from being punished or disciplined for violating the civil rights laws of American citizen.

No Federal government should be gathering and feeding off of my "broadcasted mind" to invade and gather illegal information to use against me when a complaint was filed and the Federal government neglected to assist me.

Pursuant to Rule 65(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Petitioner has provided actual notice to Respondents as of the time of making this motion, and has provided copies of all pleadings and papers filed in this action to date.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully request that this court grant this motion by entering TRO.
